BUSINESS MEN'S PICNIC.

Will be Held at Hecla Park Tuesday Aug. 22nd.

A ROUSING MEETING

Held at the Fallon House Lock Haven Tuesday Evening—A Splendid Dinner and a Jolly Good Time.

DIFFERENT COMMITTEES APPOINTED

At an enthusiastic meeting of the Business Men's Picnic Association of Centre and Clinton Counties it was decided to hold a Business Men's picnic this year. Hecla Park was selected as the place to hold the big gathering and Tuesday August 22nd is the date.

The Bellefonte members of the Association left on the 2:30 train over the Central Railroad of Pennsylvania. After a delightful trolley ride from Mill Hall to Lock Haven they proceeded to the Fallon House where they were met by the other members of the Association.

The members of the Association were entertained at dinner by Mr. Frank Warfield of the Central Railroad of Pennsylvania. It was one of the finest dinners the Association has ever enjoyed. All the delicacies of the season were to be had and everyone did full justice to them.

After the inner man had been fully satisfied everyone was in a good humor and prepared to discuss the question of picnic or no picnic. Those present were J. C. Meyer, A. C. Mingle, Philip D. Foster, John D. Sourbeck, Hammond Sechler, J. Will Conley, Dr. D. G. Stewart, Frank Warfield, F. E. Naginey, W. Francis Speer, of the Gazette, and Earle C. Tuten, of the Republican, all of Bellefonte; T. B. Buddinger and M. D. Kelly, of Snow Shoe; D. H. Stoner, of Mill Hall, T. J. Smull, of Mackeyville; O. E. Miles, of Milesburg; C. J. Sigmund, of Salona; P. P. Rittman, George W. Mason, C. F. Brown, G. W. MacDonald, G. Watson Fredericks, A. L. Lichtenwalner, D. I. McNaul, of the Lock Haven Democrat; C. H. Bressler of the Clinton County Times and C. S. Suiter of the Express, all of Lock Haven.

The meeting was called to order by President Rittman and the roll was called by Secretary J. C. Meyer. G. W. McDonald made a motion that resolutions of respect to the memory of George Loder and J. C. McCloskey, members of the Association who have died since last meeting, be drawn up by the Secretary, It was so ordered.

The old officers were re-elected for the ensuing year namely, P. P. Rittman, president, A. C. Mingle, vice-president; G. W. Fredericks, treasurer, and J. C. Meyer, secretary.

The following new members of the association were elected by acclamation, Gus Merril, A. L. Lichtenwalner, of Lock Haven; F. E. Naginey, Dr. D. G. Stewart, of Bellefonte; T. B. Buddinger and M. D. Kelley, of Snow Shoe; W. A. Eisenwine, of Salona.

The association decided without a dissenting voice to hold a picnic this year but when it came to the place of holding there was quite a contest, T. B. Buddinger put forward an earnest plea in favor of holding it at the beautiful new Snow Shoe Driving Park. He put forward some strong arguments in favor of taking the Business Men's picnic to the Mountain City.

A. L. Lichtenwalner, superintendent of the Lock Haven traction company, invited the association to picnic at Agars Park promising them a minstrel show, State League ball game and balloon ascension.

Finally J. Will Conley spoke in favor of Hecla Park and moved that it be held there. It was put to vote and resulted Hecla Park 11, Agars Park 3, Snow Shoe Driving Park 4. This settled the question in favor of Hecla Park. It was decided to hold the picnic Tuesday August 22nd.

The following committees were appointed:

Finance—H. Sechler, T. J. Smull, John M. Bullock, Philip D. Foster, Herbert Rothrock and M. D. Kelly.

Amusements—John D. Sourbeck, Geo. Gearhart, Philip S. Kift, Sidney Krumrine, and Geo. W. MacDonald.

Printing—John I. Olewine, T. B. Buddinger, G. W. Fredericks.

Closing—T. H. Harter, D. I. McNaul, A. L. Lichtenwaler, Earle C. Tuten.

Music—P. P. Rittman, Geo. R. Meek, H. P. Harris

Management—J. C. Meyer, Geo. W. Mason, J. Will Conley.

Speakers—Mayor Cupper and Mayor Walker.

On the motion of T. B. Buddinger a vote of thanks was extended to Mr. Frank Warfield for his generous hospitality in providing the supper.

The meeting then adjourned to meet at the Bush house, Bellefonte, Thursday August 3rd at 4 p. m.

Odd Fellow's Reunion.

The officers of the Centre Co. Odd Fellow's Reunion Association being W. P. Kuhn, Bellefonte Pa. pres. Percy C. Rudy, State College, vice-pres.; A. J. Tate, Jr. Pine Grove, sec.; and Scott Meese, State College; treas.; met in the Hall of State College Lodge, Monday evening July 10, 1905, to consider reports and decide upon a place where the Reunion should be held this year, The Lodges being almost unanimous on their choice of locality it was unanimously decided to hold the Reunion at Grange Park, Centre Hall, Aug. 10, 1905, or perhaps one week later. The officers along with the General Com. consisting of one member from each lodge will meet Monday evening July 17th to make final arrangements in the Lodge Room of Centre Hall Lodge. We hope that every member of the order will endeavor to make this Reunion a grand success. It is to be hoped that our members will come together on that day, giving up their usual labor for one day, and devote same to the Fraternal and social benefits of our great Fraternity. A program consisting entirely of Centre Co. Odd Fellow's will be made up and as we have some of the brightest minds in the different avocations of life, we are sure all will be benefitted. It will be a basket Reunion however, all kinds of refreshments will be served on the ground.

Child Branded With Hot Iron.

Louisville, Ky., July 11.—Mrs. Eliza Bradley, wife of Samuel H. Bradley an electrician employed by the Louisville and Nashville railroad company, is charged with maliciously, cruelly and unmercifully wounding Rosa Lee Gibson, her adopted child, in a warrant sworn by the Kentucky's Children's Home Society.

The warrant alleges that the woman, in a drunken frenzy, held the child, who is not yet 5 years of age, by the hair and branded her face and body with a hot flatiron. The child's face is horribly burned, and attending physicians say will be marked for life. Skin grafting will be used in an effort to partially restore the cuticle on her face and body.

Murdered in West Virginia.

George Bowersox, of Grampian, has received word from Davis, W. Va., to the effect that his father, John Bowersox, formerly of Penfield, was murdered a short time ago. The letter states that the elder Bowersox's head was split open with an ax.

He had been employed as foreman by a lumber company at Davis, and, just before the tragedy, had drawn a considerable sum of money. When found, there was only a few coins in his clothing. This gives color to the theory that robbery was the motive. Another theory is that he was the victim of the wrath of a former relative by marriage, whose evil designs Bowersox had frustrated a few years ago.

Large Union Picnic.

Thursday, August 13, the United Evangelical Sunday schools of Bellefonte, Lock Haven, Avis, Vilas, Swissdale, Youngdale, Farrandsville and a number of other places will join in having a union picnic at Hecla park. This will be one of the largest gatherings of Evangelicals that has taken place in Central Pennsylvania for some time. Those having the enterprise in hand are working hard to make it a most successful affair. While there will be a time to eat and a time to play, there will be a certain portion of the day set apart to hear several fine addresses. It will be a basket picnic, and all those who desire are cordially invited to go and join in the festivities of the day.

10 Pleasure Seekers Shocked by a Bolt.

Ten persons were knocked down and rendered unconscious Saturday by a stroke of lightning in Prospect Park, Brooklyn, the tennis lawn was crowded with players when a thunder-storm drove them to shelter, Mr. and Mrs. John Lewis and their children and James Haithwaite and five members of his family found protection from the rain under a great elm. They had scarcely done so when a bolt struck the tree, splitting it, and hurling those beneath it to the ground.

ELIHU ROOT IS PREMIER

Announcement Made at Oyster Bay.

A PRESIDENTIAL BEE

In the New Cabinet Minister's Bonnet—May be a Candidate for President in 1908

OTHER ASPIRANTS ARE ANXIOUS.

Oyster Bay, July 8.—Official announcement was made here yesterday that Elihu Root had been appointed Secretary of State

The announcement was made yesterday on authority of President Roosevelt in a statement given out by Secretary Loeb

"Elihu Root has accepted the tender by the President of the Secretaryship of State. He will take the oath of office in a couple of weeks, but it will necessarily be some time before he closes up his business affairs. He will not go to Washington permanently until some time in September."

THE PRESIDENTIAL BEE.

The general impression of politicians in Washington is that Mr. Root has decided to become a candidate for the Republican Presidential nomination in 1908. It is figured out that he can get the vote of New York, and with New York and the administration behind him it is assumed he will become a very formidable candidate.

Those familiar with the situation consider it is not reasonable to believe that Mr. Root, after once resigning his official position and resuming the practice of law would throw it all over in so short a time and return to Washington at the head of the State Department merely to oblige his friend Theodore Roosevelt and to fiulfill his conception of the duty of an American citizen.

SIGNIFICANT OBSERVATIONS.

It is this that has given every Presidential aspirant whose name has been coupled even casually with the magic figures "1908" the worst sort of cold chills They remember the remarkable eulogy paid to Elihu Root by President Roosevelt when his Secretary of War retired to private life less than two years ago; they observe the manner in which the President urged the portfolio of state upon Mr Root, and they entertain no delusions as to what the chief executive's influence will be upon the delegates to the 1908 convention.

Mr. Root is more feared by aspirants to the Presidential nomination in 1908 than any other man. They feel that no public speaker of today can go after an audience and capture it as can Mr. Root.

PRESIDENT GRATIFIED.

Preitdent Roosevelt is much gratified at Mr. Root's acceptance and is deeply sensible of the personal sacrifices made by Mr. Root in again taking up the burdens and duties of a member of the Cabinet.

It is the intention of Mr. Root to assume the duties of Secretary of State practically at once, although it will be perhaps two weeks before he formally will take the oath of office. His private interests are so large he will have to devote considerable time to a satisfactory arrangement of them before he goes to take permanent charge of the State Department.

Trout of Wide Fame Yields to the Hook.

Samuel H. Hare, a lawyer of Altoona, has bagged the biggest brook trout ever taken from the waters of that section. At Royer, Blair county, after a desperate struggle lasting an hour, he succeeded in landing, with the assistance of a companion, a fish measuring 24 inches and weighing five pounds.

Wonderful stories of the prowess of this fish have been told for several years. It has been hooked often, but invariably has snapped the line and disappeared.

It was known among fishermen by the name of "Jumbo" and "Jumbo" was accused of decimating the waters of smaller inhabitants. Several times application was made to the Fish Commissioner to take it illegally but he refused consent.

FUNERAL OF SECRETARY HAY.

Distinguished Men Attend Obsequies—President and Vice President Among Number.

Cleveland, July 6.—At almost exactly noon yesterday the body of John Hay was laid to rest in Lake View cemetery. Around the open grave at the last moment stood with bowed heads the President and Vice President of the United States, members and ex members of the present cabinet, and men who had in former years served with the Secretary in the official family of President McKinley.

There were many others who willingly would have paid a tribute of honor and respect to Mr Hay, but it was the wish of his family that the funeral should be conducted for John Hay—the man they knew and loved in private life, and not for the brilliant and forceful premier whose name is honored wherever clean and successful statesmanship is esteemed among men. The assemblage at his funeral and around his grave was the small. The visible honors accorded him in death were in a ratio directly inverse to those freely given him in life.

THE PRESIDENTIAL PARTY.

At 9 o'clock the special train carrying President Roosevelt and the members of his cabinet arrived at the depot of the Pennsylvania road.

In the Presidential party were Leslie M. Shaw, Secretary of the Treasury; Charles J. Bonaparte, Secretary of the Navy; Jas Wilson, Secretary of Agriculture; E. A. Hitchcock, Secretary of the Interior; Victor H. Metcalf, Secretary of Commerce and Labor; Postmaster General George B. Cortelyou; Attorney General William H Moody; Senator P. C. Knox, of Pennsylvania; Chas. Emory Smith, former Postmaster General; Paul Morton, former Secretary of the Navy and Elihu Root, former Secretary of War.

In addition there were the President's stenographer, and the President's secretary, Wm. J. Loeb, Jr., and Dr. Rixey, Surgeon General of the Navy.

CASKET REMAINED CLOSED.

The President and his party were escorted to the Chamber of Commerce, where the body lay in the auditorium. The President entered and stood by the casket The members of the Presidential party followed.

It was the express wish of Mrs. Hay that the President should be allowed to see the face of his Secretary again if he desired to do so. When the matter was mentioned to the President he declined to disturb the existing arrangements in the slightest degree, and the casket was not opened.

TO THE CEMETERY.

There was a brief pause, and members of the Cabinet stepped forward to pay their respects to Mrs. Hay as she entered the auditorium from an ante room, and then all was ready for the departure from the hall. The members of the Cabinet, present and past, ranged themselves in advance of the bier, and the six non-commisioned officers of Troop A took their places at the side of the casket. When the honorary pall bearers moved forward the casket was raised by the cavalrymen and followed by the members of the Hay family, the President and members of the reception committee, it was born along the hallway, and out to the funeral car at the door.

The body was then taken to the cemetery and interred with simple ceremony.

Conductor Hall Now at Atlantic.

Former conductor of the Central railroad, John D. Hall, is now nicely situated at Atlantic City as proprietor of "The Hallwoode," a very nicely located, convenient and comfortable hotel, on South Carolina avenue, with first-class table appointments and moderate charges. Anyone addressing "The Hallwoode" will receive his advertising folder containing terms, etc. The friends of Mr. Hall when at the beach should not fail to look him up as they will find him the same congenial landlord that he was a railroad conductor.

Doctor, Under Buggy, Prisoner all Night.

Dr. W. U. Truckenmiller of Williamsport, aged 60 years was held a prisoner under his wrecked buggy from 9 o'clock Sunday night until nearly 6 o'clock the next morning. He was helpless and injured, and though he shouted until he was hoarse nobody heard him.

His horse had run away, and after overturning the buggy and dragging the doctor a hundred yards it plunged into a fence in such a way as to fasten its feet and head between the rails, and it, too, was a prisoner all night.

SHORT STORY OF LONG LIFE

Interesting Account of Past Years

BY THOMAS WADDLE

Of the City of Jersey Shore—Can Remember of Hearing Grandfather Tell of Taking Supplies to Washington's Army.

IS A NATIVE OF CENTRE COUNTY.

There is probably no better known or more beloved citizen in Central Pennsylvania than Thomas Waddle, of Jersey Shore. He will be eighty-six years old in August, but is still in the best of health. During all his long life he has never met with an accident and has at all times enjoyed fairly good health. In the years of '60 and '61 he was county treasurer and lived at Williamsport. Mr, Waddle has furnished The Williamsport Sun with the following "short story of a long life," as he happily expressed it.

"I was born in Centre county on the 13th of August, 1819, at a place known as the Rock Iron Works, owned and operated by my grandfather, Gen. Philip Benner. It consisted of a furnace, two forges, a rolling mill, nail factory and a grist and saw mill, all near each other and on the waters of Spring creek, about five miles from Bellefonte. My father was chief manager of the works. My grandfather was born in 1760 and I can remember his telling me of the time when he hauled supplies to Washington's army.

"My father died on Feb. 5, 1825, and my mother in April of 1854. There were nine children, six of whom are dead. Besides myself two sisters are living, the elder of whom is eighty-eight years of age and the younger over eighty.

"In our day we had but little chance to acquire an education. There were but three months schooling in a year. Each family paid for their own children, the system being very different from that in use today. Our school houses were generally built of logs. The seats were made of slabs, with the smooth sides turned up. The writing desks were wide boards nailed against the wall. Pens were goose quills, cut and mended by the schoolmaster, who also set the copies. The older scholars were required to chop the wood and the younger children to carry it in and pile it in a corner of the room.

"On Oct. 28, 1845, I married Miss Webb of Jersey Shore. For three years we lived in Centre county and moved to Jersey Shore on June 9, 1849, where I have lived ever since, except the two years of '60 and '61, when I lived in Williamsport, serving as treasurer of the county. How much I would like to see the bonds given so many years ago, to look upon the signatures of those three friends, who, of their own free will and accord, were my bondsmen!

"My wife died on Oct. 29, 1873, we having been married one day over twedty-eight years. We had five children, all of them boys. Three are dead, and the other two live in Jersey Shore Since my wife's death I have made my home with my eldest son, and am trying to live a peaceful and contented life.

"My first vote was cast for the elder William H. Harrison in 1840 and I have been able to vote at every presidential election since, sixteen in all. I would not forget to render thanks to the Giver of all things for his care over me. I have realized, in a measure, the blessings set forth in the ninety-first Psalm."

Liberty Township Teachers Elected.

At a meeting of the school board of Liberty township held Saturday afternoon July 1st. bonds to the amount of $1,000 were issued to defray the expense of installing a steam heating plant in the building in Blanchard, displacing the hot air apparatus which never worked satisfactorily. Keeler & Co. of Williamsport will install the plant, which has arrived. The following teachers were elected to the several schools in the township: Blanchard High school and principal, T. Milford Pletcher; Grammar, Mrs. Rebecca Glossner, intermediate, Miss Vivien Snyder; primary, Miss Mary Johnson; Mountain school, Scott Holter, Bowes, James Morrison; Clark, Miss Ellen Johnson; Hunter Run, Winfield Thompson; Pole Cat, David Robb. All of these teachers are residents of Liberty township.

AN IMMENSE TROUT.

Caught in Spring Creek Within the Boro Limits.

John H. Miller, of Lewistown, who was on a visit to his parents last week, caught the banner trout of the season in Spring creek within the boro limits last Saturday. He succeeded in landing after a desperate struggle a trout which measured 25½ inches in length, 7 inches through the sides and weighed 5½ pounds.

The trout was caught in the vicinity of the Phoenix mill and was probably the largest ever caught in this vicinity.

Williams Reunion.

Representatives of the Williams family met at Sugar Grove, on Saturday, July 1, to arrange for the next annual reunion. The meeting was called to order by the president, W. S. Williams, and in the absence of the recording secretary, Walter Williams of Port Matilda, J. R. Williams was appointed temporary secretary. After a few addresses by Messrs. G. G. Fink, W. A. Hartsock, J. Q. Miles and others, it was decided to hold the next reunion in Miles' park on Saturday Aug. 19th. 1900.

Those who attended this gathering last year will not doubt that this annual gathering of the largest connection in the state, is growing in interest and popularity each year. In fact it would be impossible to take an exact census of this connection, ramifying as it does into every county of the state and nearly every state in the union. No special invitation will be sent to any one. Its advertisement through the papers is considered sufficient but any one desiring any special information concerning the reunion will correspond with our corresponding secretary, G. G. Fink, Julian, Pa.

Judging from the interest manifested and the preparations that are being made this reunion promises to be the greatest ever yet held. Every effort will be put forth to make this gathering climax all previous ones. Last year this reunion was the greatest social event in this section of the county, and it is determined to make the coming one still better. It has been the determination of the management of this organization to have it entirely free from any immoral conduct. It has the reputation of being one of the cleanest gatherings of its kind, no fakers or gambling devices of any kind will be tolerated on or near the ground. Abundant pure and wholesome amusement will be furnished, addresses by eminent speakers, a reputable band will furnish music and two interesting ball games between expert teams will be played during the day.

The organization will not be selfish in restricting outsiders from participating in these social feasts, in fact our family has grown to such proportions that lest we should slight one, we extend an invitation to all.

This beautiful park will not be the least attractive feature of this occasion. Its fame as a place for summer outings is spreading. A day neath the shade of those wide spreading oaks, only a five minute walk from the train will compensate for the time and expense of a long journey. Considerable improvements to the ground are under way. A large auditorium is proposed and better water facilities are assured. All trains will stop at the grounds.

Friends coming from a distance will be amply provided for.

The following committees were appointed: Amusements—J. R. Williams, G. G. Fink, June Robinson, Lola Williams, Clara Myers, and Orland Williams; Finance—W. A. Hartsock, Abednego Williams and O. D. Eberts; Transportation—J. Q. Miles, D. J. Gingery and R. R. Hartsock; Resolutions—W. H. Williams, Rev. Elmer Williams, Dr. W. U. Irvin, and A. C. Williams; Emblem—H. S. Williams, Roena Hartsock, Telford Fink and Earnest Spots; Programme—R. R. Hartsock, Mattie Williams, Lizzie Eberts and E. S. Williams; Grounds—John Q. Miles, Roger Williams, G. G. Fink and R. R. Harteock.

It is hoped that the chairman of each committee will call his auxiliaries together as soon as possible and put the machinery in motion.

The Veterans Travel Free.

Adjutant General Stewart is sending out a circular informing all honorably discharged veterans who have served in rebel prisons, of the action of the Legislature in providing transportation to those who desire to attend the monument dedication at Americus, Ga., probably in October. Also providing transportation to Vicksburg, Miss., for the same purpose.

EIGHT MEN WERE SHOT!

In a Lynching Bee at Watkinsville, Ga.

TOWN MARSHAL COWED

So Was the Jailer and Both Did the Bidding of the Outlaws at the Point of the Revolver—Appeals Were Unavailing.

SHERIFF KNEW NOTHING OF OUTRAGE

Watkinsville, Ga., June 30 —A mob entered the jail at Watkinsville at 2 o'clock Thursday morning and took therefrom nine prisoners, eight of whom were shot to death and the ninth escaped only by being thought dead by the mob. The prisoners taken out and lynched were Lon. J, Aycock, white, charged with the murder of F. M. Holbrook and wife. of Ocono county, and seven negroes, Rich. Robinson, Lewis Robinson, Claud Elder, charged with the murder of the Holbrook couple; Sandy Price, a young negro, charged with attempted rape upon the person of Mrs. Weldon Dooley; Rich. Allen, a negro convicted and under sentence of death for the murder of Mill Robertson, another negro; Gene Yerby, another negro, charged with the burglary of a rifle from Mr. Marshall, and Bob Harris, a negro, charged with shooting another negro.

The mob came quietly into Watkinsville a little before 2 o'clock. There were about fifty to seventy-five men in the crowd. All were heavily masked and no one knows whence they came or to what point they returned. They went at once to the house of Town Marshal T. H. Aiken, and quietly called him to the door. As he put his head out of the door he was seized and told that he must deliver the jail key. He refused and the men put pistols in his face and overpowered him, he being a rather small man. Aiken refused to dress, but some of the party dressed him and carried him along. The mob next seized Courtney Elder, a blacksmith, and made him bring his tools along with him. On their way to jail they were met by A. W. Ashford, a prominent citizen of Watkinsville, who had heard the noise at the marshal's house and came down town as soon as he could dress. Mr. Ashford begged the men to desist and let the law take its course, especially pleading for Aycock on the ground that the evidence had not been secured to warrant his conviction. He also begged them not to lynch those not charged with capital crimes. They told him that they were cool, sober, and determined, and that he might as well go back home and go to bed. The jail was then opened by the town marshal under the power of several pistols and inside the jail the mob held up Jailer Crow and demanded the keys to the cells. He refused at first, but surrendered them after being menaced with guns. Jailer Crow begged hard for Aycock on the same ground that Mr. Ashford did, and also for the two negroes who were not charged with capital crimes. Members of the attacking party told him to shut his mouth. They knew what to do, they said, and they were going to clear out the whole jail.

The mob got every prisoner in the jail, except Ed. Thrasher, a negro charged with gambling, who was on the misdemeanor side of the prison and was not noticed. The prisoners were carried to a position some hundred yards from the jail and tied to fence posts by their necks. Aycock protested his innocence to the last. He said they were killing an innocent man. While the general belief in Ocono county is that Aycock was guilty, still there were many who did not believe so. Rich Robertson said it was all right, so far as he was concerned, but that three more negroes were in the Holbrook murder. He named Sidney Norris, Jim Taylor and Wiley Durham as the three implicated. These negroes had been in jail before on this charge and had been released, after full investigation by the committee. The other prisoners did not open their mouths during their march to their doom.

After the prisoners had been tied to the fence posts the mob lined up and fired five volleys into their bodies. All died without a struggle with the exception of Joe Patterson, a negro who was charged with pointing a gun at Albert Ward. Patterson was shot several times in the body, but was alive after the mob left and will recover.

Aycock's body was fairly riddled with shot, a great hole was torn through his heart and another through his right breast.

The mob left quietly after doing its work and none of its members came towards Athens. It is believed that the men were from neighboring counties.

The purpose of the mob was accomplished so quietly that Sheriff Overby, who lives a mile from the jail, knew nothing of the occurrence until Thursday morning, and the residents of Watkinsville were taken completely by surprise. The people of Ocono county are horrified at the occurrence. They had borne with patience the delay necessary to securing the evidence against the Holbrook murderers and had agreed to let the law take its course. The impelling cause of the lynching without doubt was the attempted rape by Sandy Price, which excited the people all over this section.

Bicycle Craze Again.

There is a revival of the bicycle craze in England. All the bicycle factories are working overtime to keep up with orders.

It's a happy revival of a sensible craze. Would that it might extend to our own country!

A good strong revival of the bicycle craze would revolutionize the lives of millions of people. It would put oxygen into their lungs, color in their cheeks and new life in their whole bodies.

It would take hundreds of thousands of young men from the city streets on Sundays out into the fresh air of the green country. It would take hundreds of thousands of young women from the narrow confines of home and from the silly rounds of social gayeties out where the world is big and bright and beautiful.

A bicycle craze would make millions of city people acquainted with the pregnant fact that their own block is not the whole world, and that beyond their streets are other streets and lanes and fields and groves, and that beyond their little social set is a boundless domain of happy humankind.

It is impossible to estimate the good the bicycle once did for the people of our cities. Many a man and woman owe their fine health today to the fact that they once were victims of the "craze." The lives of many more were made fuller of sunshine by it. Not only the lungs, but the hearts of unnumbered men and women were opened to inhalations that were fresher, cleaner, purer.

A revival of the craze would bring these inestimable blessings to millions now growing into manhood and womanhood of the future.

Get a wheel and pedal out into the green country. It may not start a craze but it will stir up your blood and spirit.

Portland's Fine Arts Show.

Portland, July 8 —Two million dollars worth of fine paintings are housed in the Museum of Art at the Lewis and Clark Exposition. There have been collected under the supervision of Frank V. Dumond, Chief of Fine Arts, and in most instances have been loaned from private galleries. They afford the people of the Pacific Northwest an opportunity to visit the most impressive fine art exhibit ever offered in their part of the country. Aside from the canvasses, Mr. DuMond has succeeded in obtaining many fine studies in water color and an extensive collection of figures and groups in bronze and marble.

Bunker Hill.

With thoughts of Independence Day are indissolubly linked Bunker Hill. It is said the original Bunker Hill is just outside Belfast Ireland. The cornerstone of the Bunker Hill monument was laid June 17, 1825. Daniel Webster made the address, and Lafayette was present. When the shaft was dedicated there was also an oration by Webster, and President Tyler and his cabinet were present. In 1842, upon its completion, an address written by the Hon. Robert Charles Winthrop was read by ex-Governor John D. Long.

Equaled His Rivals.

The chairman of a political meeting in the course of his speech said: "Our opponent is one of the most unscrupulous politicians in this country, but, thank goodness, gentlemen, our candidate is well able to beat him on his own ground." The candidate was present.

—During the Revolutionary War, Great Britain sent 112,584 troops for land service and over 22 000 seaman to America, while the colonists had 230,000 continental soldiers and 56,000 militia under arms.

What is a Week?

The question seems simply enough to answer in two seconds, yet it has occupied the supreme court of Victoria for two days. The factories act provides that no girl shall be employed for more than forty-eight hours "in any one week." A manufacturer was summoned for violating this provision, but he contended that the week should be reckoned not by the calendar, but from pay day to pay day—that is, from Friday to Thursday inclusive. The magistrate decided that it was the correct interpretation, and the supreme court has indorsed their view.

The Vast Future for Gold Dredging.

Like most other inventions the gold dredge is a development. A gold dredge was used on the Magdalena River twenty years ago; the device was developed several years later in New Zealand; it was brought almost to perfection in California; at the present time, a dozen machine shops, scattered all over the United States, are rivaling one another in turning out a more and more perfect dredge. The home demand for these machines is so urgent that but few have as yet been shipped abroad; yet several of them have already gone to South America and several more to Europe. The present rate of out turn is about one machine per week; in the course of a few years it will be one per diem; in ten years it will probably be ten machines per diem. When this takes place, and perhaps before it, the world's production of gold, even should the quartz mines yield no more than at present, will be two million dollars a day.

When, during the sixteenth century, the mines of America threw upon the world a vast and unlooked for supply of the precious metals, the result was to impart a sudden and tremendous stimulus to production, invention and discovery. The Halcyon Ages dawned, and Europe rose at a bound from penury, ignorance and retrogression, to comfort, enlightenment and progress. That such may be the bright future before us of to-day, nothing seems wanting but to let the "Gold Ships" pursue their eventful voyages in peace.—Alex. De Mar, in the Engineering Magazine for July.

A New Lodge of Elks Formed at Huntingdon.

Deputy Grand Exalted Ruler Fred C. Hand of the Central Pennsylvania District Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks of Scranton, assisted by a number of grand lodge officers, and members of the Tyrone, Scranton and Harrisburg lodges Thursday instituted Huntingdon lodge, No. 976. The ceremonies at 2:30 in the afternoon in Odd Fellows hall were attended by Elks from all over Pennsylvania and were most impressive and interesting. The new lodge starts with a membership of 80 including 19 members who have been affiliated with the Tyrone lodge. The deputy grand exalted ruler announced the granting of a charter to the new lodge and the Tyrone officers assumed charge of the institution ceremonies with Past Exalted Ruler E. E. McClintock of Tyrone lodge, No. 212, acting as grand exalted ruler, who was assisted by other Tyrone Elks. In the evening a banquet was given at Fisher's cafe which was attended by upwards of 150 Elks.

Fish—Swartz.

A high noon wedding took place June 28th, at the home of the bride's parents Mr. and Mrs. Henry Swartz, at Philipsburg, when Rev. Geo. D. Pennypacker said the words which joined together for life Edmund Clayton Fish and Miss Bessie Spangler Swartz. Only the immediate relatives and friends were in attendance, and the ceremony was very impressive. The bride wore a dress of white crepe dechine, over white silk, and carrying a shower boquet of white roses. The groom was attired in black cloth, both presented a very fine appearance. Mr. Fish is one of Philipsburg's most highly esteemed young men, having been in the employment of the Platt-Barber Co. for 13 years. While the bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Swartz. The presents were many, both ornamental and useful. An elaborate wedding dinner followed the ceremony. The happy couple left on the 4:25 train for a trip to the eastern cities. Miss Swartz was the leading soprano in the M. E. church choir. Visitors were present from Lock Haven, Bellefonte and elsewhere.

Indigestion Cured.

There is no case of indigestion, dyspepsia or stomach trouble that will not yield to the digestive and strengthening influence of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. This remedy takes the strain off the stomach by digesting what you eat and allowing it to rest until it grows strong again. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure affords quick and permanent relief from indigestion and all stomach troubles, builds up the system and so purifies that disease can not attack and gain a foothold as when in a weakened condition. The constantly increasing use of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure by physicians of hospitals and general practice of itself tells how this most wonderful modern discovery has proved to be the greatest digestant for the alleviation of a suffering humanity. Its many cures of both children and adults grows larger day by day. Sold by Green's Pharmacy.

Threw Dynamite Through Open Window.

An attempt to blow up the house of Andrew M. Anderson, at Johnsonburg, with dynamite was made a night or two ago. A stick of dynamite was thrown into the house through an open window But as the stick struck the floor the force of the shock extinguished the burning fuse. Had the dynamite exploded the house would have been wrecked and Mr. Anderson, wife and four children would probably have been killed. It is thought the attempt was made by some foreigners who were offended by Mr. Anderson walling up a spring and then asking a rental for the use of the watering place.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

(From our Regular Correspondent.)

Washington, D. C., July 11th.

The President has offered the important post of Secretary of State to Elihu Root and Mr. Root has accepted. This brief announcement from Oyster Bay will prove an occasion of gratification to the American people who may rest assured that with the international relations of the United States in the hands of so able a man as Elihu Root they will be well safeguarded. The feeling seems to be unanimous among public men and many men in private life who keep in touch with public affairs that the President and the nation are to be congratulated on the wisdom of the President's selection and on the acceptance of a place at the cabinet table by Elihu Root. The splendid work which Mr. Root performed as Secretary of War is regarded as a certain guarantee of his success as Secretary of State. The masterly manner in which he conducted the affairs relating to the Philippines insurrection, his broad statesmanship, as demonstrated in his conduct of the relations of the United States with Cuba, and his remarkable foresight and constructive ability as displayed in his reorganization of the army and the militia of the nation have all served to demonstrate his remarkable ability and to convince the people, as they have the President, of Mr. Root's preeminent ability to conduct with credit and eclat the affairs of any department of the government entrusted to him.

Since leaving the cabinet, eighteen months ago, Mr. Root has been entrusted with numerous legal cases of great importance and it will require at least two weeks for him to sever his connection with his various clients. At the end of that time he will come back to Washington and take the oath of office but it is probable that not until autumn will he come back to Washington as a permanent resident. The belief is generally expressed that when Mr. Root does take hold of the affairs of the Department of State he will institute a new regime, that many of the fossils who now cumber the offices of one of the most important departments of the government will be compelled either to reform their methods and to make some attempts to render a fair return for the compensation they receive or to hand in their resignations. As Secretary of War Mr. Root proved a cold, but a just employer. He was quick to recognize merit where merit existed, but was invariably intollerant of slack methods of doing business and gave short shrift to the men who were disposed to regard government employment as a political "snap" carrying with it the privilege of drawing salary without doing much, if any work. As Mr. Root's reputation in this regard has traveled before him there is some consternation among the barnacles of the Department of State.

WASHINGTON IRVIN.

Died at His Home on Reynolds Avenue Sunday Afternoon.

It is with extreme regret that we chronicle the death of Washington Irvin, a well known and highly respected citizen of Bellefonte who passed away at his home on Reynolds avenue Sunday afternoon at 1:05 o'clock after an illness of only a week's duration. Death was due to pneumonia and yellow jaundice.

The deceased was born at Centre Furnace, Centre county, Pa., and was aged 54 years, 8 months and 9 days. He was the son of Joseph and Margaret Irvin. Early in life he learned the milling business at Rock Mills and later moved to Bellefonte where he worked for Gerberich, Hale & Co., and later for George W. Jackson & Co. For the last year he has been working for the Yeager Swing company.

In 1877 he was married at Milesburg to Miss Susanna Thomas of that place who survives him with the following children: Harry, of Bellefonte; Mrs. W. Heywood Boone, of Clinton, Ky., and Helen at home. One child Lulu died in infancy.

He also leaves three sisters as follows: Mrs. Mary Albert, of Philipsburg; Mrs. Annie Clark, of Brownsville; Mrs. David Reed, of Culver, Kan.

The deceased was a man of kindly disposition, a good husband and father, an industrious citizen and an honest, upright man. His family have the sympathy of the entire community in their sad bereavement.

The funeral took place Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock. Rev. John A. Wood Jr., officiated. Interment in the Union cemetery.

In Memoriam.

Mrs. Rosa B. Eckert who died at the home of her son Harry at Ardara, Westmoreland county, Pa., at 7:45 a. m. on Monday, June 19th, A. D. 1905, aged 59 years, 4 months and 15 days, was in many ways more than an ordinary woman.

She was the daughter of H. O. and Maria Briton, of near Karthaus, Clearfield county. Born Feb. 4, 1846, and was married to E. C. Eckert, of near Milesburg, Centre county, on May 21, 1865, and became the mother of three sons and one daughter, viz: H. T. Eckert of aforesaid place; William of Tyrone; George of Danbury, Conn., and Laura, wife of John K. Sprankle of Tyrone. She was an active christian worker and a member of the United Evangelical church but was intent upon worshiping with any body of believers among whom her lot was cast. She was always as opportunity afforded among those present at Sunday school, Christian Endeavor social or public service, taking part in an unostentatious manner, quiet yet in earnest and frequently took the lead when occasion required; she was a harmless, inoffensive citizen, ready to lend a helping hand when asked and gifted with the happy accomplishment of bridling her tongue, she was steadfast in the faith unto the end, bearing submissively the severe affliction it was her lot to endure as she did from valvular heart trouble for about two years before her death. Her remains were brought to the church at Snow Shoe Intersection on Wednesday following where funeral services were conducted by Rev. J. A. Foss assisted by Rev J. Zeigler while the interment took place in Emerick's cemetery east of Unionville.

She was a good housekeeper, a true and affectionate wife, a loving mother and had the unexpressible happiness of seeing all her children copy her example by confessing Christ.

One sister Mrs. Rachel Brown and one brother, H. O. Briton, both of Danbury Conn., and Edward Brown of Milesburg as step brothers survive her departure. She sweetly sleeps in hope of a glorious resurrection when Jesus comes:

Death of Mrs. Nannie Heaton.

Mrs. Nannie Heaton, widow of Harvey Heaton, died at her home in the Bush House block on Monday evening at 11:30 o'clock of cancer of the stomach. She had been ailing over a year and had been confined to her bed for eleven weeks.

The deceased whose maiden name was Miss Fannie Moran was the daughter of John and Susan Moran and was born in Benner township, Centre Co., December 27, 1866, making her age at the time of her death 38 years 6 months and 6 days.

She is survived by two children Charles and Malin. Also the following brothers and sisters: William and Perry, of Unionville; Mrs. Ida Irwin, of Braddock; Mrs. Stasie Burke, of Cleveland, Ohio.

The funeral took place Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Services were conducted by Rev. A. Davidson. Interment in the Union cemetery.

Death of Alfred Winters.

Alfred Winters died in Lock Haven, Friday morning at 4 o'clock of dropsy and heart disease, after a six month illness, although he had not been in good health for several years. He was born at Rebersburg, Centre county, May 7, 1841. He leaves one brother, B. F. Winters, assessor of the First ward, of Lock Haven, who is the sole survivor of a family of nine brothers and sisters.

AN AGED LADY'S DEATH.

Mrs. Margaret Temple Passes Away at a Ripe Old Age.

On Thursday afternoon at 5 o'clock the grim reaper death called hence to the spirit land, Mrs. Margaret Temple, one of the oldest and most highly respected citizens of Bellefonte. Mrs. Temple, who resided with her daughter, Mrs. Robert Thompson, had been an invalid for the past four years. Her illness was caused by a fall while on a visit to relatives in Snow Shoe and resulted in an injury to her hip. Her death was due to old age hastened by this accident.

The deceased was the widow of James Temple, for many years an engineer on the Snow Shoe branch of the Pennsylvania railroad. Her maiden name was Margaret Long and she was born in Snow Shoe April 20, 1821 when that place was almost a wilderness. It is alleged that she was the first white woman ever born there. She was eighty-four years of age. She died full of years and enjoying the love and esteem of a large circle of friends and relatives.

She also leaves two brothers and a sister, namely, John of Altoona; George of Howard, Mrs. Mary Price of Altoona.

The funeral took place Saturday at 2 o'clock from the residence of Robert Thompson. Rev. A. Davidson, pastor of the United Brethren church officiated. Interment in the Union cemetery.

DEATH OF J.E. DAYTON.

Was a Prominent Williamsport Business Man.

J. E. Dayton, one of the leading citizens of Williamsport, and proprietor of the J. E. Dayton shoe manufactory in Williamsport, died suddenly on train No. 4, eastbound Monday morning, between Renovo and Lock Haven. The sad news was telegraphed to relatives in Williamsport from the station in Lock Haven, and the body was taken through on the same train to deceased's home. The cause of death could not be learned, but it is supposed to have been heart trouble.

Mr. Dayton was well known in Bellefonte and in fact all over Pennsylvania, as he traveled extensively in the interest of his shoe factory, and was returning home from a trip when he died. Mr. Dayton was noted for his philanthropic work in all good causes. He was especially interested in the work of spreading the gospel, and in the conversion of the young men. He gave liberally of his means towards the support of the church and the Young Men's Christian Association, in which cause he was especially interested. His death will be a serious loss to Williamsport and the Christian organizations, to which he gave much of his time, and which were the recipients of his generosity.

Train No. 4, on which he died, is due in Lock Haven at 12:38 a. m., but was delayed many hours Monday morning by a washout near Johnsonburg, and did not reach Lock Haven until about 10 o'clock Monday forenoon.

Death of a Prominent Methodist Divine.

Rev. J. A. Wood Jr., pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church at this place received a telegram Friday evening announcing the death of his father, Rev. John A. Wood Sr., which occurred Friday noon at his home in Lincoln Park, California. Rev. Wood has been in bad health for some time.

Rev. Wood was one of the best known Methodist ministers in this country. He had traveled extensively and has preached all over the world. For many years he was an evangelist and met with wonderful success. He was also the author of many religious works that have had an immense sale. Of late years he has devoted the greater part of his time to literary work.

The deceased was 77 years of age and is survived by three children Rev. J. A. Jr., of Bellefonte; Melvin, of Minneapolis; Mrs. Mary E. Barden, of Pasadena, Cal.

The death of this eminent Divine will be mourned all over the world, wherever he was known and his family will be sincerely sympathized with in their sad bereavement.

Death of Milton B. Derr.

Milton Burns Derr died at his home in Turbotville, Pa., on Saturday of consumption aged about 30 years. He was for several years a resident of Bellefonte, serving as assistant Secretary of the Young Men's Christian Association. He was also collector and solicitor for the Bellefonte Republican for some time. He was quite a sweet singer and sang solo's in the different churches in the town. He was quite popular while here and was a very exemplary young man.

The funeral took place last Wednesday afternoon at Turbotsville

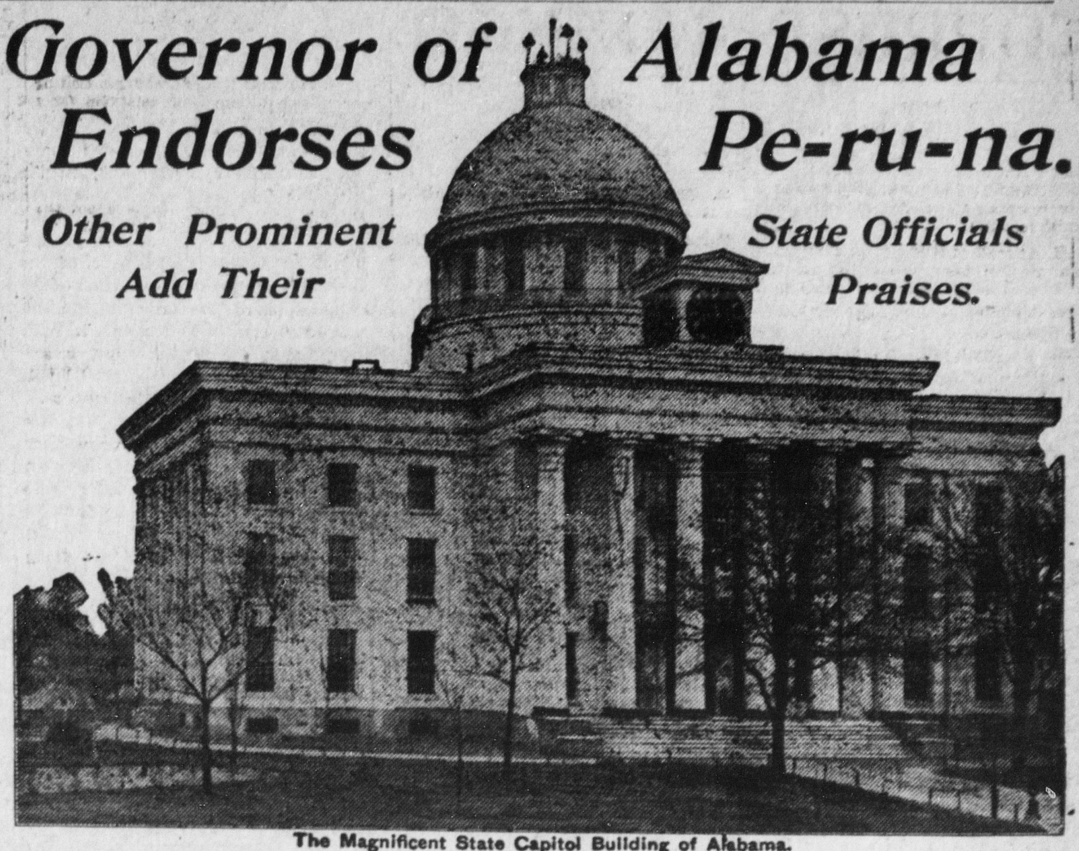
Governor of Alabama Endorses Pe-ru-na.

Other Prominent State Officials Add Their Praises.



The Magnificent State Capitol Building of Alabama.

Governor of Alabama Commends Pe-ru-na.

In a letter dated July 26, 1899, written from Montgomery, Ala., Governor Joseph J. Johnston, says:

"I join Congressman Brewer in commending Peruna."—Joseph J. Johnston.

ONE of the most wonderful events in the history of medicine is the multitude of endorsements which Peruna is receiving as a catarrh cure from men of national importance.

The most distinguished men of the United States have no hesitation in lending their influence to assist in letting the public know of the merits of Peruna.

Nearly one-half the people are in some way affected by catarrh. Therefore it is almost a national curse, and it is of national import that the people should know of Peruna.

Catarrh is an American disease. Peruna is an American remedy.

Catarrh is a result of changeable climate. Peruna is a result of long and careful experimentation.

Catarrh enters the system through the nerve centers and affects the mucous membranes. Peruna enables the nerve centers to repel and expel the catarrh from the system.

Catarrh is a systemic disease and curable only by systemic treatment.

The remedy that cures catarrh must aim directly at the depressed nerve centers. This is what Peruna does.

Redeemer of Public Moneys.

Hon. John C. Leftwich, Redeemer of Public Moneys, whose office is in the Postoffice Building, in a letter written from Montgomery, Ala., says:

"I take pleasure in recommending Peruna as an excellent tonic, and it is recommended to me by those who have used it as a good catarrh cure."—John C. Leftwich.

Register United States Land Office.

Hon. Robert Barber, Register United States Land Office, writes from Montgomery, Ala.:

"For some time I have been a sufferer from catarrh in its incipient stage, so much so that I became depressed and feared my health was generally in a decline. But hearing of Peruna as a good remedy I gave it a fair trial and began to improve. Its effects were distinctly beneficial, removing the annoying symptoms, and it was particularly good as a tonic."—Robert Barber.

Collector of Port.

Hon. J. K. Burke, Collector of Port, Mobile, Ala., writes:

"Peruna I can recommend as a fine medicine. It has been used in my family and as a tonic it is excellent. I take pleasure in testifying to its fine qualities."—J. K. Burke.

Postmaster of Mobile.

Hon. P. D. Barker, Postmaster of Mobile, in a recent letter from Mobile, Ala., says:

"Allow me to send to you my testimonial as to the good qualities of Peruna. I have used it for the past three months and find it is a most excellent tonic."—P. D. Barker.

U. S. Marshal, Northern District.

Hon. Dan Cooper, U. S. Marshal for the Northern District of Alabama, writes:

"Your remedy for catarrh and la grippe, Peruna, has done me so much good that I cannot speak too highly of it.

"I have used it for a short time and have improved rapidly from the first day. I was really much surprised at such a quick and effective cure."—Dan Cooper.

U. S. Marshal, Southern District.

Hon. L. J. Bryan, U. S. Marshal for the Southern District of Alabama, writes:

"I have used Peruna for catarrh a short time and have also had several friends try it and they all pronounce it the best catarrh remedy ever put on the market. It can not be praised too highly."—L. J. Bryan.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, President of the Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, Ohio, and he will give you the benefit of his valuable advice gratis. All correspondence strictly confidential.

School Board Meeting.

The school board held its second annual meeting for year Wednesday evening. Members present Heinle, Longwell, Parker, Quigley and Fortney, Pres. Heinle in the chair. The committee appointed to secure rooms for the Midway school reported that they had arranged with Gardner for the building now occupied by the said school for the coming year at an annual rental of $225.

The school term for the year was fixed at nine months and taxes were levied at the rate of six mills for school purposes, on an assessed valuation of $1,621,364.00 and two mills for debt and interest and sinking fund purposes. The board re-elected the Janitors to wit: John D. Love and John Klinger; there were no other applicants for this position. On motion of Mr. Longwell the supervising principal was directed to notify the teachers that they were to purchase no supplies or other material for the schools without authority of the board and it was suggested that the same rule apply to the janitors

Finance. A. C. Mingle, J. P. Harris, J. K. Barnhart. Supplies. D. F. Fortney, G. R. Parker, T. M. Longwell. Text Books. John P. Harris, D. F. Fortney, G. R. Parker. Accounts. T. M. Longwell, W. H. Epworth League Convention.

The seventh international convention of the Epworth League opened Thursday with three simultaneous meetings which taxed to the utmost the capacity of Coliseum hall, Trinity Methodist Episcopal church and Central Presbyterian church, the largest auditoriums in this city. Fully 20,000 delegates and visitors have been attracted to Denver by the convention.

With a single change the programme was carried out to the letter. Bishop Isaac W. Joyce, of Minneapolis, was to preside at one of the opening meetings, but owing to sickness he was unable to be present. The chairman at these meetings were Bishop Joseph Berry, of Buffalo, N. Y.; Dr. Stephen J. Herben, of Chicago, editor of the Epworth Herald, and the Rev. Melvin Taylor, of Quebec, Canada.

—Next in order of midsummer events will be the reign of the Dog Star.

Hicks' July Menu.

The second storm period is central on the 7th, 8th and 9th. On and next to the 8th, look for a marked reaction to excessive warmth; with threatening barometer and many thunder squalls. Very threatening clouds with low barometer, should they appear at this time, will suggest the possible approach of tornadic storms. Change to cooler will come behind these disturbances.

The third storm period is central on the fourteenth, extending from the 12th to the 17th. Very general and decided storms will be most natural at this time. Regions where storms have prevailed at the previous July periods may expect an increase of same during this period while drouth and heat will reach a crisis over wide sections intervening. From the 14th to the 17th it will be wise to figure on many violent thunder storms, resulting in local cloudbursts and downpours in many sections. Very low barometer readings will presage possible danger. Seismic disturbance will be natural on and about the 16th. Tendency to continued cloudiness and unsettled, threatening weather to follow this period with possible rise to cooler from the 16th to the 19th. The fourth storm period is central on the 20th and 21st. Look for increase of temperature, falling barometer and return of rain and electrical squalls on and touching the 20th and 21st. Many places will have storminess, thunder and lightning and possibly dangerous winds, at this and other July periods, but only light and scattering rains.

The fifth storm period is central on the 25th, extending from the 23rd to 27th. The barometer will fall and other storm conditions will appear early in this period. On and touching the 24th and 25th the temperature will rise, the barometer will fall, and a sensible increase of tendency to storms and storminess will result, all followed by rising barometer and change to somewhat cooler from about 26th to the 29th.

The sixth storm period is central on the 30th and 31st of August, throwing the culminating crisis of perturbations into August. This month will come to a close with high and rising temperature, the barometer will be low and falling to westward and cloudiness and storms will be forming and starting on their eastward career.

Otto—Nolan.

On Thursday evening Mr. Harry Otto and Miss Mary Nolan, two popular young people of Bellefonte, planned a little surprise for their many friends by quietly slipping around to the Catholic parsonage on East Bishop street, where they were joined in holy bonds of wedlock. The ceremony was performed at 8.30 o'clock by Rev. P. McArdle. Mr. Boyd Nolan, a brother of the bride, was groomsman and Miss Elizabeth Brouse was bridesmaid.

After the ceremony the bridal party proceeded to the home of Mrs. Jerry Nolan, on East High street, where a delightful reception was given in honor of the bride and groom. Later they were serenaded by both the Logan and Undine Fire companies.

The bride is a daughter of the late Jerry Nolan and is a very pretty and accomplished young lady. We feel sure she will make a very worthy helpmate through life.

The groom is in the wholesale and retail tobacco business and is one of our own's most energetic business men. This paper joins with the many friends in tendering congratulations and best wishes for a happy and prosperous future.

—According to Boyd's city directory of Williamsport for 1905 that city has a population of 45 115 a gain of about 500 over last year. The above figures include the circumjacent territory.

—Treasury officials traveling on public business are allowed to charge the cost of their baths to the expense account. This demand for a clean administration is far reaching in its effects.

—The Lutheran General Synod has ended its session at Pittsburg and the delegates have gone to their homes. The synod accepted the invitation of Zion Lutheran church at Sunbury to hold its next meeting in that church in 1907.

—The wedding of Mr. Minot Curtis Brewer to Miss Alice Campbell Van Pelt, at Camden, N. J., on Saturday, June 24th, has been announced. Mr. Brewer will be remembered as a draft-man with the Standard Scale works when they were located in this place.

—A New York newspaper shows that a large number of American women who have married titled foreigners have become the mothers of twins. This affords a rational and effective method of breaking up the custom of foreign marriages Let the news widely circulate.

—Elsewhere in this issue we publish a list of Jurors drawn for the August Term of court which will last but one week, as business before this term always is slack. At this term the murder case from Osceola will come up and may consume considerable time. Just what will develop in this case remains for trial in court.

—The President has determined that Chinamen applying for admission at the ports of this country shall be treated with entire courtesy. The president will have to employ an entirely new set of immigration officials to accomplish that end. Even he connot make a silk purse out of the aural appendage of a hog.

—Miss Nellie Herman, who graduated from the Bellefonte Hospital Training School in April left last week to take a position in the Hospital at Philipsburg. Miss Eunice Clarke who graduated at the same time is doing private nursing at her home in Ansonville. The other member of the senior class Miss Shipley, will finish her course during the Autumn.

—Canada thistles are a great pest to farm land. In July the plant is in full gloom and if not cut down the seed will ripen and be carried far and wide, causing much annoyance. The law requires all land owners to cut the thistles in July. If they are neglected it is the duty of constables to go and cut the weeds and collect from the property owners a nice fee. For that reason look after your crop of Canada thistles at once.

—The handsome little brochure on Asbury Park, just issued by the passenger department of the Pennsylvania Railroad Co., might be the means of helping some of you who are in doubt as to a nice place to spend your summer vacation. Asbury will be particularly attractive this summer because the National Educational association meets there and to persons who are after a profitable, as well as a recreative vacation, it is a fine place to go. A 2ct. stamp enclosed to Geo. W. Boyd, general passenger agent of the P. R. R. at Philadelphia, will secure one of the brochures for you.

—Billy Bridgens, of Eagleville, was bitten on the finger by a large rattlesnake while out in the mountains fishing. He laid his arm over a log that was across the stream and was all unconscious of the rattler sunning itself on the log until he received the full charge of poison from both of its fangs. Immediately his companions put a twitch about his wrist and got as much whiskey into him as they could with safety. When he got to camp the wound was cut open and the finger immersed in whiskey with the result that the poison made it as black as ink. Bridgens hand and arm swelled to monstrous size, but by Tuesday the swelling was all gone and he appeared none the worse for the bite. The accident happened on Big run.

—Joseph Garbrick Sr., an aged resident of this place, dropped dead on Tuesday July 4th while visiting relatives at Zion. The remains were taken to the home of his son Joseph Garbrick Jr., in Bush Addition. He was 82 years of age.

—On the evening of the 4th a sky rocket set fire to the roof of the Brockerhoff building on Bishop street. The alarm was sounded for the South Ward but before the fire companies reached the scene the blaze had been extinguished with no serious damage.

—A well dressed man who registered at a hotel in St. Joseph, Mo., casually remarked that he never traveled without his own fire escape, at the same time exhibiting the contrivance which he carried. "In case of fire," he said, "I can let myself down from any hotel window." The landlord said, gravely: 'Our terms for guests with fire-escapes are in advance."

Married—George E. Furey, of Martinsville, Ill., and Miss Ethel Gray, of Bellefonte, were married on Tuesday, July 4th at the Methodist parsonage at Snow Shoe by Rev. H. J. Schuchart. The groom is the son of Morris Furey of this place. The bride has been an operator in the Bell Telephone Exchange and is a very pretty and attractive young lady.

—It will probably be a matter of interest to his friends in this vicinity to know that one of the prettiest marches which the Coleville band has played in its regular Saturday evening concert programs, thus far this season, is one composed by Dr. Lee B Woodcock, of Scranton. A further evidence that it is a good one is the fact that it is a favorite with director Bryant.

—A well known bachelor, whose name it would not do to divulge, says he bough a pair of socks at a certain store not wise to name, and inside found a note from the girl who knited them, requesting the buyer to correspond with her, object matrimony. Just for a lark he answered the note and was surprised to receive an answer that since writing the note the fair one had married and was the happy mother of five children. He had bought the socks at a store that did not advertise.

—The large barn on the farm of J. C. Peters on Dix Run, near Unionville, was burned to the ground on the 4th of July. The fire was discovered at 12 30 just at the dinner hour and in a short time was burned to the ground. Four horses and four head of cattle perished in the flames. Several tons of new hay, wagons, harness, farm implements, etc., were destroyed. Frank Peters, a son of J. C. Peters, is farming the place. His loss is quite severe as he carried no insurance. The barn which belongs to his father was insured.

—Scalp Level postoffice, Cambria county, has been in charge of ladies of the Buchanan family almost sixteen years On July 1, 1889, Mrs. Elizabeth C. Buchanan took charge of the office and continued in office until her death, July 23, 1904, when her daughter, Miss Margaret, who had been assistant postmaster, became the head of the office. Her sister, Miss Louise, is assistant. The office has about 500 patrons, many of whom are foreigners working in the mines, and since the establishment of a mony order department in the office in 1898, over 25,000 money orders have been issued.

The blood is strained and purified by the kidneys. No hope of health while the kidneys are wrong. Foley's Kidney Cure will make healthy kidneys and pure blood. C. M. Parrish.

—The Pennsylvania railroad is experimenting with a new headlight which is expected to give much better service as far as the enginmen are concerned. It has been the aim of the road for some time to get a better type of headlight on its locomotives, it is said, and the present is only a continuation of other tests along the same line. The new headlight is expected to light up the track several hundred yards ahead of the locomotive to which it is attached, and thus permit the engineer to look farther ahead than at present. If it proves satisfactory and durable in service it will be generally adopted on the new locomotives ordered by the Pennsylvania. The old types of headlights can be seen far enough away, but are not sufficiently brilliant for the engineer.

A SPLENDID PROMOTION.

The many friends and acquaintances of Mr. Joseph Rhoads will be delighted to hear of the splendid promotion which has fallen to him. Mr. Rhoads has been located at Tacony, Pa., and was supervisor of the New York Division; the Pennsylvania four track line between New York and Philadelphia. Last week he received word of his promotion to be Assistant Engineer of the Eastern & Susquehanna Division of the Philadelphia & Erie Railroad, the appointment went into effect July 1. With this promotion goes a much larger salary and greater responsibility. He will hereafter be located in Williamsport.

Joseph Rhoads is a son of the late Daniel Rhoads, who in his life time was one of Bellefonte's most honored citizens. His mother, his sister Miss Rebecca and his brother, Mr. Edward K. Rhoads are residents of this place, and they feel a just pride in his rapid rise in the railroad world.

Bellefonte feels an interest in any of her sons who go away to make a place for themselves in the world, and they are highly gratified at the success achieved by Mr. Rhoads and will carefully watch his future career with heartfelt pride.

Bathurst Reunion.

On Thursday, June 22nd, there was a delightful family re-union at the home of the venerable L. B. Bathurst, near Roland, Pa., in order to observe the 75th birthday anniversary of the head of the family. Mr. Bathurst resides on a farm about one mile south of the station which he has occupied these years, tilling the soil and at times supplying the Curtin Iron Works with wood. etc.

In that time his fireside has been blessed with eighteen children, fifteen of whom survive and nearly all now are grown to sturdy manhood and useful women. While the family circle was large and the parent found much to do in providing food and raiment, he also took under his roof homeless ones and adopted them, giving such the same care and solicitude as his own. As a citizen he has always been a useful member of the community, honored and respected by all. For this reason the 75th birthday anniversary of such a stalwart citizen deserved more than passing note.

Among those in attendance were the following: Mr. and Mrs. Albert Henderson of Bellwood; Amanda M. Bathurst, of Chicago; Cora Vaughn and son, of Philipsburg, John Bathurst, of near Kipps; Harry, James, Earl, W. H., and Bert Bathurst and family, all of Bellefonte; Mr. and Mrs. Clayt Packer and children, of Lock Haven; Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Turney, of Bellefonte; and Ormona and Lawrence Bathurst at home; Col. Austin Curtin and others were also present. On such an occasion a feast is in order and there was a repast prepared fit for a king, of which all partook. A family group was taken before the gathering broke up.

Noted Bank Burglar Dead.

"Big Frank" McCoy, the famous old-time bank burglar and partner of the late Jimmy Hope, of Manhattan bank fame, died recently at the Metropolitan hospital on Blackwell's Island, of a complication of disease. McCoy for some years had lived a hand to mouth existence on the East Side. He was taken to the hospital June 18. McCoy was implicated in some of the most sensational bank robberies in the country. At different times in his career he was possessed of considerable means, but his money went as fast as it came.

In the hospital he spoke of his past life and said he supposed he was getting what he deserved. "If I only had my life to live over again," he said. "I would not end up in this way." McCoy is not known to have any relatives.

Won the Wager, But Lost His Life.

William Young of Shenandoah who drank a quart of whiskey on a wager died on Saturday from the effects of the liquor. Young was challenged to do the deed which resulted in his death. Young accepted the challenge and soon fell into a stupor. Two days ago he recovered somewhat and was able to be about, but the immense amount of alcohol in his system again overcame him and this time fatally.

May Pay Sick Benefits, Too.

The Firemen's Relief association in Williamsport finding their funds received from the state increasing rapidly, are considering the advisability of changing the bylaws so that firemen can be pensioned after serving 25 years and the paying of sick benefits.

A Bright Boy.

That is what you say of a lad 10 years old who could speak Spanish, Italian, German and French. It is possible for your boy or girl to do that in a short time and not cost a penny. The Pittburg Daily Dispatch is publishing a series of language lessons which have been made sufficiently simple to enable a child 10 years of age, as well as grown persons to acquire a conversational knowledge of the various languages in 90 days. It is a great oppertunity for every person to learn. Ask the newsdealer to deliver The Dispatch to you regulary and take advantage of the free Lessons in Languages.

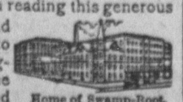
DO YOU GET UP WITH A LAME BACK?

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable.

Almost everybody who reads the newspapers is sure to know of the wonderful cures made by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It is the great medical triumph of the nineteenth century; discovered after years of scientific research by Dr. Kilmer, the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, and is wonderfully successful in promptly curing lame back, kidney, bladder, uric acid troubles and Bright's Disease, which is the worst form of kidney trouble.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been tested in so many ways, in hospital work, in private practice, among the helpless too poor to purchase relief and has proved so successful in every case that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The regular fifty cent and dollar sizes are sold by all good druggists.



Home of Swamp-Root.

Don't make any mistake, but remember the name Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghampton, N. Y., on every bottle.

THEY NEVER FAIL.

That is What They say About Them in Bellefonte, and it is Therefore, Reliable.

Another proof, some more evidence, Bellefonte testimony to swell the long list of advocates who endorse the old Quaker remedy, Doan's Kidney Pills. Read this convicting endorsement of the claims made for that remarkable preparation:

Mrs. Emma J. Davis, of 246 E. Logan St., says: "I have a great deal of confidence in Doan's Kidney Pills, and have already recommended them in a published testimonial in 1897. I told how I had been relieved of kidney complaint and backache which had kept me suffering for years. Doan's Kidney Pills did this for me when other remedies had failed. Whenever I feel any symptom of my old trouble I send to F. Potts Green's drug store for a supply of Doan's Kidney Pills and it never requires more than a few doses to get me right.

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cts. cents. Foster—Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y. sole agents for the United States.

The new pipe line is about completed and we will soon have the best water in Central Penna. flowing into town. All the good things are coming our way, keep up the spirit boys and then make Snow Shoe a borough at the next election.

One hundred and twenty nine years have passed since the Declaration of Independence was signed. Since the signing of that noted document many celebrations and glorifications have been held in honor of the signing of that Magna Charta of America but nothing in the scribes mind, has been more appropriate in this section of the country than the opening of the new park of the Snow Shoe Driving Park Association on the Fourth of this month. Every effort was put forth to entertain and amuse the guests of the town on that date. The association deserves much praise for the masterly way the large crowd was managed and the pleasure and comfort the people enjoyed at the opening of this grand, young park unexcelled in Central Pennsylvania for its beauty and the comfort afforded visitors. Many compliments have been bestowed on the managers about the beauty of this park but none has been more forcible than the one given by a visiting business man who said "Many beautiful parks exist in Central Pennsylvania but in none are the comforts of the visiting people looked after as well as in this park. He had reference to the enumerable benches and tables scattered through the park and the accommodations rendered those who drive to the grounds.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co, Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

An Attractive New Feature for the Great Centre County Fair.

The Great Centre County Fair, having grown to be a permanent enterprise among the institutions of this county, the gentlemen who have it in charge have adopted a policy of progress. There will be no indifference, no standing still in the matter of making it the great moral, social, industrial exhibition it ought to be.

Centre is a great county and should have a great fair.

That the fair association intends that it will have one is assured by this latest new and novel feature that is to be added.

In a building specially designed for the purpose, there will be a Grand Competitive Township Exhibition.

This exhibit will be open to every township in the county, and in order to add interest and zest to it three grand prizes will be rewarded as follows:

To the township having the best general exhibit, a handsome organ.

To the township having the second best exhibit, $30.00 to be applied to the purchase ofcharts and maps.

To the township having the third best exhibit, the Standard Dictionary.

All of these prizes are intended for the schools of the townships and will be rewarded in the following manner:

With each paid admission to the fair grounds, will be given one ballot which the holder can mark and cast for the township he or she judges has the best exhibit. When a particular township has won one of the prizes, it shall belong to the school from which most of the exhibits making up the general township exhibit have been collected.

It is understood that the exhibits making up the respective township displays will also be entered for competition in their respective classes, if the exhibitor so desires and in that way he will be able not only to contribute to the success of the schools, but to receive whatever cash awards the exhibit may merit.

This undertaking should prove one of the most interesting and attractive exhibits ever made in this county, and it will certainly be that if the townships enter in it with the proper spirit.

Here is the opportunity to secure something useful for your schools without a single cent of outlay further than the little trouble in collecting and arranging the display.

School directors, school teachers, school children and parents, should all interest themselves in it, and the work should begin at once. Now is the time when the products of the field and garden are maturing. The men could save these articles, the women could prepare products of culinary, household and fancy work excellence, and the children anything that has merit in it. It is to be understood that the display may include anything grown or made in Centre county and the more of it the better.

In order that there may be no handicap because of the isolation of any particular district, the competition will be open to every township and borough in the county with the exception of Bellefonte.

GOOD for OLD and YOUNG

August Flower keeps the children healthy and strong—
Full of vigor and frolic the whole day long,
So when Mamma needs more they rush off in high glee,
And shout to the druggist: "Please give it to me!"

¶Inability to get up brisk and fresh in the morning, lack of appetite, paller, muddy complexion and poor spirits—these all indicate a disordered stomach and bad digestion—in adults and children, too. They also indicate the urgent need of taking Green's August Flower regularly for a few days.

¶It's a reliable old remedy for all stomach troubles, never fails to cure indigestion, dyspepsia and chronic constipation, and is a natural tonic for body and mind.

¶Two sizes, 25c and 75c. All druggists.

Centre County Historical Society.

A meeting to perfect the organization of the Linn Historical Society will be held in the Court House on Friday, July 21st. at 11 a. m. Papers applicable to the occasion upon topics historical relating to Centre county, will be read, by authors of the same, and anybody, ladies included, is invited to contribute such papers for this meeting, and at all future meetings, these papers can be read by the writers or can be mailed to the president or secretary to have same read. General Beaver will set forth the importance of having a Historical Society in this county, already too long neglected. which has so thrilling a history, and is the mother of so many prominent personages. County papers please copy.

Death of Frank M. Fuller.

Uniontown, Pa., July 12.—Secretary of the Commonwealth Frank M. Fuller died at his home here Monday night. He was suddenly stricken with apoplexy. Drs. John Fuller and Charles F. Smith being summoned, they revived him, and in about an hour he seemed to have almost fully recovered. Later his condition became serious and he died. He was 52 years of age.

Mr. Fullmer was stricken with apoplexy in his garden, and was unconscious for fully 15 minutes during the first attack. He had recently returned from a vacation and intended to go to Harrisburg Tuesday.

Whiskey Medicines.

The temperance press is emphasizing the danger to the home in the use of "medicines" which are loaded with whiskey or alcohol. In this respect, as well as in the remarkable character of their cures, Dr. Pierce's medicines differ from other preparations. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and "Favorite Prescription" contains no alcohol, whiskey or other intoxicant and are equally free from opium, cocaine and other narcotics. Every family should have a copy of the People's Common Sense Medical Adviser sent absolutely free, on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for the book in paper covers, or 31 stamps for cloth binding. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce. Buffalo, N. Y.

Will Prevent the Killing of Rabbits.

It is now unlawful to allow a beagle dog or a fox hound to run at large in the country, according to an act which recently became a law through being signed by the governor. This law provides that no hunting dogs shall be permitted to run loose about the country only from the 1st day of August of every year to the end of the hunting season. This measure will, if enforced, prevent the killing of a large number of small rabbits during the spring and summer months, as well as prevent the damage to fields in the springtime by the dogs. It is a measure which will meet with the approval of every hunter who is in favor of the law being enforced, and the farmer will file no objections, either.

Young Wife Hangs Herself.

While suffering from melancholia, Mrs. Annie Hileman, aged 23, wife of Christian Hileman, a Sinking Valley, Blair county farmer, committed suicide Thursday, by hanging herself from a joist in the cellar at her home. Her husband was in Altoona on Thursday and made the discovery on returning home late Thursday night. The young woman had been married two years.

Five Years For Beating Son to Death.

Richmond, Va., July 11.—Mrs. Estelle Smith charged with beating to death her 5-year-old son, was found guilty of voluntary manslaughter and sentenced to five years in the penitentiary. Owing to the illness of Commonwealth Attorney Page, the case was by agreement submitted to the jury without argument.

—The three year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas King, of Valley View died Tuesday morning. The funeral will be held on this morning.

The July "Arena."

The July "Arena" opens with the thirty-fourth volume of this standard review with a very notable table of contents. Among the features that will appeal with special interest to persons interested in civic life and duty are the following: "The Economic Struggle in Colorado," by Hon. J. Warner Mills; "Municipal Black Plague," a story of the period of utter darkness which immediately preceded the recent revolt of the people of Philadelphia, by Rudolph Blackenburg; "How the People Should Acquire Public Utilities," by Prof. E. W. Bemis and F. F. Ingram; and a criticism of Andrew D. White's position on the railway question, by the Editor of "The Arena." There is also an admirable paper entitled "The Charm of Emerson," by Prof. J. R. Moseley, Ph. D. one of the most fascinating papers that has been written in years on the Concord philosopher; "Homer Davenport: A Cartoonist Dominated by Moral Ideals," illustrated with a number of Mr. Davenport's best drawings; "The Struggle of Autocracy with Democracy in the Mid-Era," by E. P. Powell; "Our Diplomatic Policy in Relation to the Republic of Panama," by Prof. Edwin Maxey; and "The Identity of Socialism and Christianity, by James T. Van Rensselaer. There are two original full-page cartoons in this issue: one drawn by Dan. Beard, the other by Ryan Walker, besides four full-page half-tones printed in seipa on India tint paper. These with the "Mirror of the Present," the Book studies, current cartoons and book reviews make up one of the strongest and most readable numbers of "The Arena" that has appeared.

Don't Worry.

Don't start nervously, if a child makes a noise or breaks a dish—keep your worry for broken bones.

Don't sigh too often over servants' short comings

Don't get excited if the servant has neglected to dust the legs of the hall table; neither the welfare of your family nor the nation is involved.

Don't exhaust all your reserve force over petty cases. Each time that a woman loses control over herself, her nerves, her temper, she loses just a little nervous force, just a little physical well being and moves a fraction of an inch farther on in the path that leads to premature old age.

Don't eat as if you only had a minute in which to finish the meal.

Don't go to bed late and rise at day break and imagine that every hour taken from sleep is an hour gained.

Don't always be doing something; have intermittent attacks of idling.

To understand how to relax is to understand how to strengthen nerves.

Don't fret and don't worry are the most healthful of maxims.

Three Good and Just Reasons.

There are three reasons why mothers prefer One Minute Cough Cure: First, it is absolutely harmless; Second, it tastes good—children love it; Third, it cures coughs, croup and whooping cough when other remedies fail. Sold by Green's Pharmacy.

Experimenting with New Headlight.

The Pennsylvania railroad is experimenting with a new headlight which is expected to give much better service as far as the enginemen are concerned. It has been the aim of the road for some time to get a better type of headlight on its locomotives, it is said, and the present is only a continuation of other tests along the same line. The new headlight is expected to light up the track several hundred yards ahead of the locomotive to which it is attached, and thus permit the engineer to look farther ahead than at present. If it proves satisfactory and durable in service it will be generally adopted on the new locomotives ordered by the Pennsylvania. The old types of headlights can be seen far enough away, but are not sufficiently brilliant for the engineer.

Our Flag.

At a banquet in Chicago an English-man arose to "toast" his flag and in a very pompous manner said:

"Here's to the Union Jack, the flag of flags; the flag that has floated on every Continent and sea for a thousand years, the flag upon which the sun never sets."

These remarks seemed to overcome the Americans and silence came over the banquet hall, when Eli Perkins awkwardly rose to his feet and said:

"Here's to the Stars and Stripes of the New Republic. When the setting sun lights up her stars in Alaska the rising Sun salutes her on the rock bound coast of Maine. It is the flag of Liberty and was never lowered to any flag, and it is the only flag that whipped the flag upon which the sun never set."

Atlantic City.

The season here so far has been exceptionally dull, due to the cold spring which we have had, although now that it is getting warm in the cities, the crowds are daily increasing, and everything indicates a more prosperous season than ever before.

The months of May and October are said to be the two prettiest months at this resort, the water is especially fine for bathing in October.

The boardwalk which extends along the beach for five miles, and which was formerly forty feet in width, has now been widened and extends for sixty feet; it formerly was to small for the immense throngs

This city is ordinarily of about thirty-five thousand population, but the summer excursionists swell it to 250,000, which seems incredible, but there are 1,000 hotels and cottages for the accommodation of the people, and usually they are taxed to their utmost capacity.

The summer season opened here on June 15th, but the rush begins on July 3rd and extends for a period of eight weeks, then decreases to the fall trade.

Among the conventions held here this spring, was the Hotel Men's Association of America, they met in New York City last year and next year will convene in Portland, Ore., This convention was attended by 1,000 hotel proprietors and their wives, they hailed from all over the United States and Canada, and a jollier crowd of men cannot be gotten together than the "mine hosts" of the nation.

Atlantic City is gaining notoriety just now as being favorably mentioned as a meeting place for the Peace Envoys of Russia and Japan which have agreed to meet in Washington, D. C., during the month of August.

While in Atlantic City stop at the St. Clare Hotel, on Pennsylvania Avenue.

So far there has been very few Bellefonters registered at this resort, they have it so cool and nice in the mountains, but during July and August, Bellefonte furnishes quite a few tourists who spend their vacations listening to what the wild waves are saying.

Tourists say that for less money you can see more amusements in Atlantic City, than any other resort in the world, the steel pier especially is noted for its variety of first class amusements, which ten cents admits you to see.

The accidents so far here have been very few, only a few bathers venturing to far out in the ocean; in fact the suicides number almost as many as the accidental deaths.

Probably the most picturesque scene a person could see, is to stand on the board-walk on one of these clear, moonlight evenings, and looking seaward see the everchanging blue ocean reflecting the moon's rays; it is a picture all artists attempt to produce, but few, if any, succeed.

Write for booklet of St. Clare hotel; best accommodations; lowest prices; beautiful situation.

Mistook President for Masher.

President Roosevelt tells with evident enjoyment of a set back he received at the hands, or rather the lips, of a woman of Albermarle, Va., who had never seen the President and only recognized in the slouchhatted individual a bold young man who was essaying the role of a masher.

On Mr. Roosevelt's visit to the home recently bought by Mrs. Roosevelt he got off the Southern Railway, at Red Hill, and was shaking hands with the crew when a woman started to board the train.

The President, with his strong right arm, assisted her, then he grasped her hand and gave it a shake, the woman all the while eyeing him suspiciously. As she entered the coach she said:

"Young man, I don't know who you are, and I don't care either, but want to say that you are the freshest that ever struck here."

$1 a Year on Each Hen.

The largest egg farm in the world is owned and managed by C. E. L. Hayward at Hancock, N. H. It has at this time over 8,400 hens, kept in 600 small houses, fourteen in each. The hens are never allowed outside their little 8-foot square coops and are never fed green feeds, contrary to the teaching of all other poultry feeders. Each hen gets a quarter of a pound per day of beef scraps, gluten, hominy feed, wheat, etc., with a little salt ground shells, grit and charcoal, and plenty of clean water. An annual profit of $1 per hen is reported as proof of the practicability of this system.

Mr. Bryan on Conscience;

"The president has recommended legislation which will place railroad rate-making under the supervision of public officers. Success to his efforts in this direction! But the necessity for conscience becomes the greater in proportion as the temptations to wrong-doing increase (and temptations increase as greater power is placed in the hands of officials), and while we seek to make rates reasonable and to prevent those forms of discrimination which can be detected, we may well hope for the advent of a business conscience which will make railroad managers spurn as wrong the issue of fictitious stock, and regard as immoral the running of a railroad with an eye single to the advancement of their own personal and pecuniary interests."—W. J. Bryan, in the Commoner for June 16th.

It would be interesting to know, in the face of this statement, whether Mr. Bryan would be willing to place in the hands of public officers, whose business conscience would be an unknown quantity, the power to regulate the great commerce of this country rather than to leave it as it now stands, under laws framed for its control and to courts open to all.

Missouri Woman is an Expert Engineer.

Mrs. G. J. Manning, who lives seven miles south of Munroe City, bears the distinction, probably, of being the only woman engineer in Missouri.

Her husband operates a saw mill and for two years Mrs. Manning has acted in the capacity of engineer in the most satisfactory manner. Mr. Manning said:

"Prior to two years ago I employed a number of men at different times as engineers, all of whom were more or less unsatisfactory. Upon one occasion the engineer did not show up. My wife told me to turn the engine over to her.

"At first I hesitated, but finally decided to let her try it. To my surprise she handled the engine all right and we did one of the best day's work of the season.

"For two years she has ran the engine with very little expense for repairs. She readily detects lost motion or other defects and, when necessary, will shut down to make repairs. If the log is a large one or knotty, she regulates the power accordingly and keeps the speed uniform.

"I've tried several engineers, but she's the best one I ever had."

The First Flags.

In July, 1775, on Prospect Hill, General Israel Putman raised a flag upon which was inscribed the motto of Connecticut, "Qui transtulit sustinet;" and on the reverse were written the words "An Appeal to Heaven." In October, 1775, the floating batteries of Boston carried a flag with the motto "An Appeal to Heaven," the design being a pine tree on a white field. Virginia carried a flag in 1775 which displayed a rattlesnake coiled as if about to strike, and the motto, "Don't tread on me." When General Washington assumed command of the motley army gathered before Boston in January, 1776, the flag raised at his headquarters had the thirteen red and white stripes just as they are to this day, but the union was formed of the crosses of St. George and St. Andrew displayed on a blue ground. It is said that when the British regulars saw it they supposed it was an evidence of submission to the King, who had just issued his proclamation.

Corn Grows Five Inches in 24 Hours.

Lancaster county's claim to have the most fertile soil of any of the agricultural sections of the United States is given strong support by J. M. Sweigart, a farmer of Denver. Mr. Sweigart had a patch of early sweet corn which has been doing some great stunts in the way of rapid growth, and, believing that its growth was really remarkable, he made an experiment. A board was placed beside a stalk, both being of the same height, and in one night it was found that the stalk had grown more than two inches above the board. In twenty-four hours the growth was nearly five inches, a development that is considered wonderful.

Something Wrong if you Have no Enemies.

You have no enemies? Then you have never dared stand up for the right against the wrong; you have protected the weak against the bully; you have never dared defend your own right against oppression. Had you done any of these things you would have enemies. Even if you have done none of these things, but simply achieved a little more success than your neighbor, you would have an enemy, for failure always hates success. The man who has no enemies should be ashamed of it.

CALIFORNIA

Do you want to live where the climate is mild the year round—where labor is never oppressed by stress of weather, and where animal vitality is never lost by mere conflict with cold?

Do you want to live in a region where the resources are more varied than in any other equal area in the world, where the division of great ranches affords a fine opportunity to get a small farm that will assure you a competence?

Do you want to live where, with a minimum of labor, you can grow profitable crops of grapes and small fruit, oranges, lemons, olives, prunes and almonds, alfalfa and grain, where crops are sure, business is good and capital easily finds profitable investment?

Then go to California, where both health and opportunity await your coming.

The Chicago, Union Pacific and North-Western Line

is the most direct route to the Pacific Coast, and there are two fast through trains daily via this line, over the famous double-track railway between Chicago and the Missouri River.

Special low round-trip rates are in effect via this line throughout the summer to various Pacific Coast points, and colonist low rate one-way tickets will be on sale during September and October, which give an unusual chance for settlers to make the trip at a minimum of expense.

Daily and personally conducted excursions are operated through to San Francisco, Los Angeles, and Portland without change, on which a double berth in a Pullman tourist sleeping car from Chicago costs only $7.00, via the

SPLENDID EDUCATIONAL DISPLAY

Portland, July 1.—The Pacific Northwest states, and especially Oregon, have assembled at the Lewis and Clark Exposition one of the finest educational displays ever seen. This is contained on the second floor of the Oriental exhibits building and has been arranged under the supervision of Director of Educational Exhibits, Robinson. It attracts much attention from visitors.

All of the displays are representative of the various departments of the educational systems of the Pacific Northwest, from the primary grades to the highest classes in institutions of collegiate rank. To each school has been assigned a gallery of sufficient size to house a large and representative exhibit. The galleries are finished in green burlap with white wood trimmings and the whole is festooned with green and white bunting.

Beginning at the south wall of the Oriental Exhibits building, the educational displays of Oregon and of the city of Portland continue until they meet with the display of the Oregon Agricultural College, along the east wall. All specimens of school work are contained in handsome hardwood cabinets. These are provided with fifteen layers each, upon which the specimens have been mounted, and are equivalent to 141 square feet of wall space.

Parochial schools of the Northwest have been assigned several galleries and make an excellent showing. Montana and Colorado have sent very large exhibits, which are located along the west wall of the building. A feature of the Colorado display is a large collection of models of school buildings, showing the progress made by that commonwealth with its educational institutions. The models range from the first and most crude schoolhouse of rustic construction to the largest and most magnificent edifice in the state today.

In addition to the educational displays contained in the Oriental Exhibits building, California makes a most creditable showing in the California state building. Idaho and Missouri have done likewise in their state buildings.

There Should be Many of Them.

A dispatch from Toledo, Ohio, published in some of the daily newspapers states: "In the village of Tontogany, a few miles south of the city, three daughters of a participant of the war of 1812 reside. Despite their advanced age, they are in excellent health. They are Margaret A. McColley, 83; Eliza Phillips, 78, and Martha H. Kuder, 73, daughters of Soloman Kuder. There are but six surviving children of the soldiers of the war of 1812 in Ohio, and it is a remarkable coincidence that three of the six should be sisters, and all living together. Soloman Kuder was with Capt. W. H. Putoff's company, of the Twenty-sixth United States Infantry, at the battle of the Themes, where the great Chief Tecumseh was killed. When the war with Mexico started, Kuder again enlisted in the service, but did not reach the scene of fighting.

There should be still many surviving children of soldiers of the war of 1812, Bellefonte, for instance, has a family of four such survivors, a record surpassing that of the Kuder family in Ohio. Monroe Armor and his sisters, Eudotia and Anastasia Armor and Mrs. S. B. Miller, all of Bellefonte, are surviving children of Major James Armor, who died in 1876 at the age of 82 years. Major Armor was an officer in the war of 1812, and if we mistake not he also served in the Mexican war. The last surviving soldier of the war of 1812, Hiram Cronk, died only a few weeks ago at his home in New York state.

WILL OF W. LAIRD HARRIS.

The will of the late W. Laird Harris of East Buffalo township, Union county was probated last Saturday. Among other bequests it gives $3,000 to the Masonic Lodge of Lewisburg and $250 for the care of his cemetery lot. It then continues as follows:

Item—I give and bequeath unto my nephew James Harris Snodgrass, of Mifflinburg, Pa, my gold open face watch, which I now carry, together with the chain attached, and I also give and bequeath unto the said James Harris Snodgrass and to his heirs my fire proof safe in which I request him to keep and preserve the old family records now contained therein as also my own private papers and those which relate to my estate after the settlement thereof, it being my intention that the said safe is to be kept as an heirloom in the family for such purposes and not to be disposed of to strangers.

Item—I give and bequeath unto the children of my sister Mary L. Snodgrass, of Mifflinburg, Pa., deceased, namely: William B. Snodgrass, James H. Snodgrass, Charles C. Snodgrass, Robert E. Snodgrass, Sarah Emma Snodgrass, intermarried with J. Merrill Barber, and Mary Bell Snodgrass inter-married with Dr. Chas. Dimm, the sum of $2,500 each.

Item—I give and bequeath unto my sister Sarah Clementine, inter-married with F. Potte Green, Bellefonte, Pa., or to her heirs the sum of $15,000

Item—I give and bequeath unto my sister Annie B. Harris, Lewisburg, Pa., or her heirs, the sum of $7,500.

Item—All the rest and residue of my estate I give and bequeath as follows: The one-half thereof to the children of my deceased sister Mary L. Snodgrass, as above named in equal shares and the other one-half thereof to my sister Sarah Clementine Green or her heirs.

Alfred Hayes, of Lewisburg, and James Harris Snodgrass, of Mifflinburg, are named as executors of the will Cured Bronchial Trouble.

John D. Rockefeller and His Many Gifts.

One week from to-day John Davison Rockefeller will be 67 years old. He was born at Richford, Tioga county, N. Y., and was educated in the public schools of Cleveland, where he began life as a clerk. In 1858 he became the Junior member of the firm of Clark & Rockefeller, which in 1860 entered the oil business as Andrews, Clark & Co. In 1865 the firm became William Rockefeller & Co., and built the Standard Oil works at Cleveland. In 1870 the Standard Oil company was organized, in 1881 the Standard Oil trust and in 1892 the present Standard Oil company.

As the head of the Standard Mr. Rockefeller has amassed a fortune conservatively estimated at $300,000,000. He is the employer of 1,000,000 men and spends his time at his home in New York his summer home in the mountains along the Hudson river and at the house he still maintains in Cleveland.

Since 1880 Mr. Rockefeller has given away $55,000,000. His principal benefactions have been as follows:

To the "University of Chicago (Founded by John D. Rockefeller," $15,327,000.

MALE HELP WANTED.—Every boy to ask his confectioner for CHICLETS.

Stirring Scenes.

At 2 o'clock on the afternoon of July 4, 1776, stirring scenes were enacted in Philadelphia. In answer to the signal of "Ring!" given by the lad stationed below for that purpose, the old bellman rang out a wonderful peal, while the whole city shouted for joy. The King's arms were taken down from the court house, the city was illuminated, bonfires were lighted and rejoicing continued far into the night. In New York a leaden figure of George III. was pulled from its pedestal on Bowling Green and moulded into bullets.

Woman's Rights.

Many women suffer all sorts of so called "female weaknesses" just because their kidneys are out of order and they have a right to know Foley's Kidney Cure is just what is needed by most ailing women. C. M. Parrish.

A PRETTY JUNE WEDDING.

A pretty home wedding was solemnized at eleven o'clock Thursday, June 29th, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Shuman Pletcher, of Howard, the occasion being the marriage of their estimable daughter, Miss Mable C., to G. Harvey Mann, of Folsom, West Virginia, where he has been employed for many years by the South Penn Oil Co.

Rev. E. M. Aller of the M. E. church performed the ceremony.

She is a bright and attractive young lady and will make her husband an excellent helpmate through life. The many beautiful presents she received was a testimonial of the high esteem in which she was held.

Only a few of her most intimate friends were present: Mr. D. D Jones, Pittsburg, Pa.; Mrs. Lydia Jones, Beech Creek; (mother of the Groom) Mr, and Mrs. C. E. Bullock and daughter; Master Floyd Mann, Folsom, W, Va.; Mr, and Mrs. John Meese, Bellefonte; Mrs. W. I. Gordon, Columbus, Ohio; Gene Pletcher, Philadelphia; Mrs. S. F. Kline, Misses Anna Weber, Grace Schenk and the bride's parents, brother and sisters.

After congratulations a very sumptuous dinner was served, and at 1.47 the happy couple departed on a honeymoon trip to the northern cities.

Entering Its Second Century of Usefulness.

The Bellefonte Academy will enter upon the second century of her life of usefulness most auspiciously both as regards the ability of the teaching corps and the number and character of the students. Twelve competent teachers will constitute the faculty and the largest attendance of students in the schools history will be enrolled in September. Of the tried and experienced teachers of the former corps, Prof. E. H. Meyers, Miss Hill and Miss Overton will return. Prof. Wharton will take up post-gradute work at Columbia University, Dr. Smith has accepted a call to Franklin and Marshall college to teach French and German. In Mr. Miller's place Mr. Hughes has secured a very brilliant and scholarly teacher in Mr. Oliver Baker, of Ohio, who has obtained the degrees of M. S, and M. A. He will teach Mathematics, Civics and History.

Mr. Smith's place will be filled by a very competent man. Prof. James R. Hughes will teach Latin and Greek and take charge of the main school room. Charles Hughes, a graduate of Princeton in 1893, who has had a most valuable experience in business since leaving college will assist in the business management of the school, the care of the property, and assist in the teaching of Arithmetic, Bookkeeping and Stenography in the business department, this is a step in the line of progress.

Doubtless Rev. J. P. Hughes will be on deck to assist in his old time manner if his services should be needed.

Every effort is being made to provide the Academy with better facilities in every respect than have ever been provided before.

Mr. James R. Hughes earnestly invites the hearty co-operation and support of the Bellefonte and Centre county citizens that he may be enabled to carry out satisfactorily the plans he has in his mind for the development of the Academy. Worthy suggestions tending to the improvement of the school are always welcome and will receive due consideration. A full card of the Academy will appear later.

FEMALE HELP WANTED—Every girl who suffers from indigestion to try CHICLETS.

KnewLiq uor Would Save Life; Refused It.

Aaron S. Vail, prominent Indiana prohibitionist and well known member of a Quaker family, died at Laporte, Ind., of pneumonia, though the attending physician states that his refusal to take medicine that contains brandy, which had been prescribed, was the underlying cause of death.

Mr. Vail, who owned a large saw mill, was injured by a buzz saw coming off the shaft and striking him in the back. The right shoulder blade was sawed through, six ribs were cut off and the right lung was horribly mutilated. It was then not expected that the injured man would live 24 hours, but he survived the shock and was on a fair way to recovery when he discovered that he was being given liberal quantities of brandy. He rebelled and refused to take any kind of medicine that contained brandy. Complications set in, pneumonia developed, and the doctor told him that unless he took the medicine prescribed he could not hope for recovery. So strong was his prohibition principles, however that he absolutely refused, though he knew that it meant death. He was 50 years old and wealthy.

To Asthma Sufferers.

Lawson Elviege, of Barrington, Ill., says he was cured of chronic asthma of long standing by Foleys Honey and Tar. It gives positive relief in all cases of asthma, so this disease, when not completely cured, is robbed of all its terrors by this great remedy. C. M. Parrish.

THE FOURTH AT HECLA.

There was a large crowd in attendance at the Undine picnic at Hecla Park and everything passed off very pleasantly. While the crowd was not so great as in former years yet there were between four and five thousand people on the ground during the day. The best of order was maintained and everyone enjoyed themselves immensely. The day was an ideal one and Hecla Park never looked more beautiful.

Two bands of music were in attendance State College and Zion and the people did not lack for good music. There was plenty of amusement for the crowd such as base ball, dancing, trap shooting, boating etc., and in the evening a fine display of fireworks on the lake.

Monday night there was a big parade headed by the Zion band. It was participated in by the Red Men, Logan Fire Company and Undine Fire Company.

Robert A Beck was chief marshal of the parade,

Concerning Municipal Ownership.

The people at last are beginning to realize that they have a vested property right in their streets and alleys, and that if the use of these streets and alleys is a valuable commodity to the corporations by the same token it is a valuable commodity to the public.

However, the public service corporation is still so firmly entrenched in the possession and control of every utility worth possessing and controlling in American cities that the schemes for the rescue of the public is still in embryonic form.

Indeed, a certain vague idea of a sancity of rights seem to pervade the atmosphere in the average community, and the plain citizen enters upon the discussion of the ownership by the community of its own utilities with bated breath and with almost an air of being caught in a felonious attempt to subvert a divinely established order of things. A similar sensation must have been experienced in the decade before the revolution by our forefathers when first the idea of throwing of the rule of England's sovereign was whispered with bated breath.

For generations in all our cities public utilities have been in the hands of a favored few, and great families have been established and great fortunes gathered at the expense of the ordinary citizen.

In all our cities the families of the owners of the gas plant; of the street railway company, of the electric lighting company, of the telephone company and of all the other public utility companies take precedence of ordinary folk by reason of the patent of nobility conferred along with the franchises of the concerns.

Abroad great deeds and a long line of distinguished ancestry characterized the claim to aristocracy. With us wealth forms the keystone upon which great houses are built, and this wealth, in many instances, at least, is first founded upon some grant or franchise by which the right to tax the people for their personal benefit was transferred from the community to an individual or group of individuals.

WANTED.—Every young man to ask hi Druggist for CHICLETS.

The Trial of a Politician.

No one is better able to speak of the trials and tribulations of the politician of today than Frank Willing Leach, himself for years under the high pressure of political life, but now the biographer of all the politicians who have cut any sort of a figure in the Pennsylvania politice for a quarter of a century. This is how he puts away the fellow who stays the game too long, the effusion appearing over his name in a recent issue of the North American:

"Unlike most other avocations, that of the professional politician is characterized by almost uninterrupted tempestuousness. The ordinary man, who lives the ordinary life—the clergyman, the lawyer, the physician, the financier the merchant—has his extraordinary periods of restlessness and contention. But the life of the politician is purely abnormal for with him it is strife ever. Battle succeeds battle as the night the day; turmoil is the rule, peace the exception; there is continual scene-shifting, but the politician is ever on the stage—never in the parquet; his office hours begin when the rising-bell rings, and terminates only when the retiring hour comes again; in the devastating struggle, only the fittest survives—nor does he survive as long as his fellow who leads a more rational existence. With such a man the current of life does not flow with a musical, rhythmical sweep; it is a succession of rapids and whirlpools, as it rushes madly to the sea. And, while most lives, as they draw near their close, meander on through placid meadows where violets and daisies bloom and the air is soft and redolent with the fragrance of flowers and pulsating with the songs of the birds with the songs of the birds who have forgotten that their ever was a winter; not infrequently the river of life of the politician dashes hurriedly to its close, madly, abruptly, precipitously, losing itself in the welcoming Ocean of Eternity.

FIRST IN THE FIELD,

Just commenced in the New York Family Story paper

A Modern Bluebeard

or the adventures of a Female Sherlock Holmes a realistic romance founded on fact by Fanny May. You who have been reading the daily papers can easily imagine how the thought came to the author's mind to write this story. Though purely a romance, many of its most sensational and dramatic scenes are based on fact. It is a startling expose of a wicked man's wiles. This realistic romance begins in No. 1644 of THE NEW YORK FAMILY STORY PAPER.

It's Dangerous To Doubt.

You have no right to doubt a thing that has been tested and found to rest on fact.

Vin-te-na has cured so many people in so many parts of the country that it is really unjust to predict a failure in any case that has gone beyond the power of medicine.

Vin-te-na purifies the blood and makes the nerves strong and steady. It not only cures disease but safeguards the system against every form of germ disease. Most all diseases are rooted in the blood. Vin-te-na cures the very cause of all blood disorders by destroying the impurities in the blood and giving it purity and warmth. Get it and be strong.

—One of the most conspicuous objects that is noted by the observant visitor to the model mining town of Windber in Somerset county, is the new general hospital that is being built there through the generosity of Edward Berwin, of the White Coal Mining company. This hospital which will be completed and ready for use in about three months, is one of the most perfect institutions of its kind and size in the state of Pennsylvania.

—Those who have the best interests of their country at heart will commend the stand taken by the President with regard to the admission of educated Chinamen to this country, a stand which has already resulted in an abolition of the boycott of American goods which threatened materially to curtail the market of American producers. The Chinese exclusion law is all sufficient when properly enforced to accomplish its purpose, and the President's admonition to diplomatic and consular agents that they perform their duties thoroughly is no more than should long ago have been insisted upon.

—Several people of Gallitzin have received Black Hand letters threatening death unless they leave the town within fifteen days. William McCue, foreman of a mine, refused to employ any foreigners in or about the mine and he has received a letter stating that he is a marked man. The letter is signed with two crossed hands. The police are now investigating. Dr. Lano, an Italian physician at Gallitzin, was some days ago notified to leave or he would be killed, and has already taken his departure, Frank Salvatore, a merchant, received the same notice, and he and his two employees have left Gallitzin.

—This time Mr. Taft believes he has secured a Panama Canal director who will stay digging.

—Falling from a Reading railway train at East Penn Junction, Pa., brakeman William Shaffer lost both legs.

—Some people seem to believe that if the base ball players succeed in perfecting their union it will mean more strikes.

—Lorenzo Buchanan, aged 20, was thrown while endeavoring to stop a runaway horse at Altoona, and fatally injured.

—It is announced that the next convention of the Catholic Young Men's National Union will be held August 22-23 at Albany, N. Y.

—Ex Ambassador Porter has been appointed senior special ambassador to receive the body of John Paul Jones. That is as it should be.

—Another false fire alarm sounded on Monday afternoon. It was only a flue on fire on the house of Mr. Hassingers at Pleasant View below town.

—The torpedo boat destroyers Whipple and Stewart collided while entering the harbor of Rackland, Me., the former being considerably damaged.

—Rev. George I. Browne, rector of St. Johns' Episcopal church of Bellefonte, ably filled the pulpit in the St. Pauls Episcopal church at Lock Haven, Sunday.

—Mrs. Warren Hollenback was called to Bellefonte this week by the illness of her son, Will, who is lying in the hospital sick with typhoid fever.—Philipsburg Ledger.

—There are some hope for those Equitable directors after all. Although they still insist that their dealings were "fair and honorable," two of them have made "restitution."

—A young colored man graduated a few days ago from the Binghampton, N. Y., high school, being the first of his race to accomplish this work in that school. As a consequence he has been awarded a scholarship at Cornell University. Gradually our idea in regard to the inferiority of the colored race are being changed.

—The world conference of farmers now being held in the city of Rome on the call of Italy will without doubt result in great good to the interest of agriculture. The fact that crowned heads in other countries as well as the highest authority in our own land are taking so much interest in the products of the soil should awaken the tillers thereof to a fuller appreciation of their importance and arouse them as never before to a determination to put their business on the same basis with other interests of the land. To all who appreciate this and are wondering why and where to take hold we would suggest try the Grange.

—The cause of the sinking of the Pennsylvania Railroad company's east bound tracks about one-fourth of a mile west of Gallitzin is giving the officials some little concern. Some days ago the tracks sank eighteen inches for a distance of 150 yards. They were at once raised and next day they sank again at the same place, all four tracks being affected. It has been suggested that it may possibly be due to a mine under the tracks and that the roof of the old workings is giving away. It has been the general impression that no coal has ever been taken from under the railroad company's property, but the officials are making an investigation.

—An item is going the rounds of the press, stating that Lee Camp, the Confederate Soldiers' Home near Richmond, for the first time in its history flung from its flagstaff the Stars and Stripes on the Fourth of July just past. The item and insinuation are incorrect. Col. Charles P. Bigger, who was the father of Mrs. Clarence E. Taylor, wife of the pastor of the First Baptist church of Tyrone, was commandant of Lee Camp for the nine years preceding his death in 1902. At Col. Bigger's direction the American flag was regularly flung to the breeze on national holidays, and it was at half-staff there on the occasion of the lamented McKinley's death.

—John Moran Watson, the well known Altoona gunsmith, died at his home 1113 Eleventh avenue on Tuesday, July 4th, of inflammation of the bladder, with which he had been suffering for several weeks. Three weeks ago he went to Philadelphia for treatment, but finding no relief he returned home and grew rapidly worse until he passed away. Deceased was born at Howard, Centre county, Pa., and was aged 56 years. Early in life he learned the trade of a gunsmith and for thirty years had followed that occupation in Altoona. He also conducted a gun store in Tyrone a few years ago. He was married thirty-one years ago to Mrs. L. L. Pierce, of Lock Haven, who survives, with one son Raymond G., at home. He is survived by three sisters, Mrs. Fannie Donahay and Miss Liza Watson, of Williamsport, and Mrs. Martha Sallet of Carlisle. He was a member of the Methodist Episcopal church.

—Summer visitors are numerous.

—Rural telephones are coming.

—The front of McClain block is being improved by a new coat of paint.

—Miss Roxie Mingle one of the eachers in the Reformed Sunday school, entertained her class at a Picnic at Hecla Park Tuesday.

—The Bellefonte base ball club will cross bats with the strong Snow Shoe nine on Friday. They intend to make a weeks trip of it, playing in different parts of this and adjoining counties.

—The Centre County Picnic Association of the I O. O. F., met at State College Monday evening and decided to hold their annual picnic at Grange Park, Centre Hall on the 10th of Aug.

—Some people feed at the public crib so long that they have a notion that they have inherited the right to special accommodations from the people. A man can impose on people as well as on individuals.

—At Hector, Tioga county, the other day the nine-years-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wright while playing with a shotgun presumed not to be loaded, accidentally shot and instantly killed his seven-years-old brother Charles.

—Sportsmen will bear in mind that the law regulating the shooting of woodcock has been changed. Under the old law they could be killed after July first, but under the new law it is unlawful to kill them until Oct. 1st.

—The State game commission has appointed a committee of which ex-State Treasurer Harris, of Clearfield, is chairman, to select sites and establish game preserves upon the land controlled by the State forestry commission.

—Hydrophobia has broken out among some cattle on the Gen. Stewart farm at Eden Hill, Huntingdon county. Several head of cattle are affected and some have died. Veterinary surgeon W. H. Fry of Pine Grove Mills was called in to attend them. He ordered all the dogs in the neighborhood, either penned up or killed.

—Ed Brown, of Bellefonte, a lineman in the employ of the Bell Telephone company was struck by lightning while at work on a telephone pole near Millheim, Monday afternoon and fell to the ground. He was rendered speechless for several hours but finally recovered and fortunately sustained no permanent injury.

—The total eclipse of the sun which will take place August 30, and for which great preparations are being made by various eclipse expeditions, will be the most important astronomical event of the present year. On that occasion the moon will pass over the sun's disc, completely hiding it from view wherever the moon's shadow falls upon the earth. It will not be visible in this part of the world.

—Earle Mung, aged 12 years, of Rock Springs, Centre county, was bitten by a large rattlesnake Monday morning. The lad was out in the woods and saw the snake under a log. He grabbed the snake by the tail and pulled it out from under the log when it turned and bit him severely. Dr. Woods of Pine Grove Mills is attending him and he is reported to be getting along nicely.

—Dairy and Food Commissioner Warren has mailed a circular letter to every clergyman in Pennsylvania asking them to co operate with him for the suppression of the sale of "intoxicating liquors adulterated with irritants and poisons." The circular explains that a recent decision by the state supreme court in the Keburt case prohibiting the department from making arrests for selling adulterated liquors and that the pure food law of Pennsylvania does not include nor apply to liquors.

—Monday evening Leslie Jacobs and Howard Fetterhoof, of Centre Hall, drove to Bellefonte and while in John Porter Lyon's automobile emporium took a notion that they would enjoy an automobile ride. Francis Speer happened to be there at the time and they kindly invited him to share in the enjoyment that comes from sport of that kind. The ride was from Bellefonte to Pleasant Gap and the pike being in perfect condition made a most delightful trip. Willis Wian, one of the most careful manipulators of the machine had the party in charge and no time was lost in getting to their destination, Mr. Lyon keeps on hand the very best automobiles and those put in charge of outing parties are competent and obliging. Those who desire an hour of real enjoyment should try the automobile.

Laid to Rest.

The funeral of the late Washington Irvin took placeWednesday morning at 10 o'clock from the family home on Reynolds Avenue. There was a large attendance of relatives and friends and many beautiful floral tributes were received.

The services was conducted by Rev. J. A. Wood, Jr. of the Methodist church, who delivered an eloquent and touching funeral sermon.

The casket bearers were Messrs. A. Y. Wagner, Michael Hess, Henry Dickinson, John Love, Levi Whippo and John Dunlap. Interment was made in the Union cemetor

Will Sue Royal Arcanum.

The Royal Arcanum, of which the late Benjamin F. Dilley, of Wilkes-Barre, was a member, has refused to pay the $3,000 insurance benefit which he bequeathed to his neice, Mrs. Ike Davis, of Philadelphia, the only living relative of the deceased. It seems that the Royal Arcanum has a clause in its rules relative to death claims which provides that the benefit can be turned over only to one who is dependent on the deceased member. The case will be carried into court.
